Supervisor in New York City—Treaty with Nicaragua—Piracy in Chinese Waters—Public Debt—Immigration Statistics—Custom House Expenses.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

WASHINGTON, September 1, 1868.

SUPERVISOR FOR NEW YORK.

Commissioner Rollins has recommended to the Secretary of the Treasury the appointment of Spencer Kirby as Supervisor under the new Internal Revenue law for New York City, but the President is in favor of Gen. L. W. Sager for the position.

TREATY RATIFIED.

The President has issued a proclamation announcing the ratification of a treaty of friendship, commerce and navigation between the United States and Nicaragua. There is to be reciprocal freedom of commerce, but by this the priviiege of carrying on the coast trade is not understood. Among other provisions the Republic of Nicaragua grants to the United States and to their citizens and property the right of transit between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans through the territory of that Republic, or any route of communication, natural or artificial, by land or water, which may now or hereafter exist or be constructed under the authority of Nicarauga, to be used and enjoyed in the same manner and on equal terms by both Republics and their representative citizens, the Republic of Nicaragua, however, reserving its right of sovereignty over the same.

NAVY DISPATCHES—PIRACY IN CHINESE WATERS.

The Navy Department has dispatches from Admirals Farragut and Rowan announcing the disposition of the European and Asiatic squadrons; also a dispatch from Lieut. Commander Cushing, commanding the Maumee, dated Yokahoma, July 12th, announcing that he had found at Hoi How ten Europeans, comprising the crew of the Bremen bark Leemona, which had been captured by pirates two weeks before within sight of the east coast of Hai Una. The Leemona had ten able bodied white men and a number of Chinese passengers. She was armed with two cannon and a number of breech-loading rifles, revolvers, &c., and yet was captured after a short chase, by a Junk carrying but two guns and a crew of twenty Chinamen. The Europeans did not defend themselves by a single shot, but surrendered in a most cowardly manner, and were actually set to work breaking out the cargo for transfer to the Junk. Lieutenant Commander Cushing thinks such cases are an encouragement to piracy, and does not doubt will lead to its increase. After taking all they desired the pirates sent the Captain of the bark and his men into the coal locker forward, and closing the hatch, put on the sheet anchor and chain, after which they scuttled the ship, stove in the boats and sailed away, intending that all hands should go down with the sinking ship. The Captain and crew managed to break out and get ashore, leaving the Chinese passengers to their fate. The whole history of this case, says Commander Cushing, is one of disgraceful cowardice, and he was glad to find there were no Americans in the crew. Commander Cushing, after a long cruise, failed to find any of the pirates, and in obedience to orders sailed for Yokahoma.

PUBLIC DEBT STATEMENT.

It is estimated that the forthcoming public debt statement will show an increase of five or six millions. The disbursements in August, on account of War Department expenses, have been very large, which, taken with the Alaska payment and disbursement on account of the public debt and other accounts, will swell the total.

IMMIGRATION STATISTICS.

The director of the Bureau of Statistics furnishes the following information relative to immigration to the United States during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1868. Total number of passengers arrived, 323,749; of which 44,966 were citizens of the United States, and 50,126 foreigners not intending to remain in the United States. The returns compared with 1866 and 1867 show a heavy falling off.

CUSTOM HOUSE EXPENSES.

A reduction in the expenses of the various Custom Houses has been made since the 1st of July to the extent of a quarter of a million of dollars, and still further retrenchment is in progress. It has been found that many employes have been drawing salaries without rendering public service, and that their appointments were the results of mere favoritism.

CADET ENGINEERS.

General applications have been made to the Secretary of the Navy by parties anxious to secure appointments as cadet engineers at the Naval Academy, but in consequence of the reduction of the force ordered by Congress that class of cadets will not be formed at the Academy during the present year.

SUBJECT TO ORDERS.

Brevet Brigadier General Absalom Baird, Brevet Brigadier General Nelson, and H. Davis, have been placed subject to the orders of General Sherman for assignment to duty as assistant inspector Generals of the Department of Missouri.

THE PRESIDENT'S TOUR.

The President has not determined when he will leave Washington on a brief visit to Tennessee, as it is not known whether or not there will be a September session of Congress.

ARKANSAS.

The Reported Insurrection—A Statement of the Trouble.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, September 1.—The Republican gives the following version of the recent reported troubles in Arkansas, based, it says, upon reliable information as late as the evening of the 29th ult. Conway county, forty miles above Little Rock, has a large negro population, of whom a considerable number are Democrats. Recently some Radical negroes surrounded the house of a Democratic negro, and after killing his dog tried to get him out of his house. The assailants were arrested, and in making up a negro jury a Democratic negro was summoned, and him the Radical blacks drove away with drawn weapons. Supposing he would return with his friends, the black Radicals went off and collected a number of men and armed them. Two white men who tried to induce these negroes to desist were fired upon, one of whom was mortally wounded and the other had his horse killed under him. At this stage of the proceedings Messrs. Hunkle and Gibbons, Radical members of the Legislature, summoned the concerned people in great numbers, and two or three hundred whites and friendly negroes assembled at Lewisburg, on the river, for mutual protection, they having been threatened with indiscriminate murder. On the 27th, a crowd of three hundred Radical negroes were harangued at Little Rock, and two companies raised to proceed to Lewisburg, but Governor Clayton was induced by the representations of the citizens to forego the expedition, the citizens agreeing to accompany him to the scene of disturbance and guaranteeing to assist in the arrest and punishment of those who should found to be the true offenders. This was the condition of affairs up to the evening of the 29th, as we learn from reliable dispatches.

The Democrat has the following special from Little Rock, Arkansas, dated to-day: Governor Clayton has returned from Lewisburg. The insurrection is quieted, the Court reinstated and trials resumed. The difficulty commenced by the rebels breaking up the Court with armed force and disarming Union men. The latter soon collected, one hundred strong, took a position in a cotton field, and whipped three hundred rebels. Several of the latter were shot and missing. The Union men sustained no loss. Governor Clayton arriving addressed the insurgents, ordering them to disperse. Meanwhile the Sheriff arrived with a posse three hundred strong, and quiet was restored.

The Paraguayan-Brazilian War—Details of Recent Fighting—An Agitator Jailed at Manchester, England—The Recent Railway Disaster in Wales—Banquet to French Finance Minister.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SOUTH AMERICA.

LONDON, September 1.—The following particulars of events preceding the evacuation of Humaita by the Paraguayans are believed to be authentic: On the 16th of July the Marquis De Caxias, Commander-in-Chief of the allied forces, received information that the Paraguayans were leaving the fortress. He immediately ordered an advance, and a column of 16,000 men crossed the ditches, entered the enemy's lines and took possession of a redoubt. They were making preparations to occupy the rest of the works when the Paraguayan troops opened a fire of musketry and artillery, which had terrible effect on the allied column in its crowded and disordered condition. The Paraguayans then advanced on the Brazilians, jumping into the redoubt and attacking them with the bayonet, meantime keeping up a sharp artillery fire on the column which had commenced to fall back. The attacking party of the allies were driven from the redoubt, and the column retired to its camp, having suffered severely in killed, wounded and prisoners. The lowest estimate of their loss in this attack places it at six hundred killed and wounded. Some divisions were almost cut to pieces and large numbers of men were missing.

A few days later the allies assaulted a Paraguayan fort in the Gran-Choo. The attacking party was received with a heavy fire of artillery, which created a panic among them, and they commenced retreating in disorder. The Paraguayans left their defences and pursued the retreating troops with great vigor. The latter again suffered a heavy loss, especially on their retreat, their killed and wounded amounting to 550.

On the 25th of July it was discovered that Humaita had at last been actually evacuated. All the heavy guns left in the place were dismounted and spiked and some munitions of war, which could not easily be moved through the forest, left behind. The garrison retired in good order and without interruption to the position on the Tebicuary. The fortifications there, which Lopez has been building for nearly a year, are believed to be impregnable, and the communications with the interior are secure. The Paraguay river has been so obstructed as to be inaccessible to the iron clads of the allies.

A dispatch was received at Rio Janeiro on the 8th, stating that the United States steamer Wasp had proceeded up the river to Asuncion to take on board Minister Washburne and suite.

GREAT BRITAIN.

MANCHESTER, Sept. 1.—Murphy, the anti-Catholic agitator, was arrested in this city and held in bonds to keep the peace. Being unable to give the necessary securities he was sent to jail, where he now remains.

LONDON, September 1.—The Ariel, the first ship of the fleet from China, has just arrived in the Thames. She sailed from Foo Choo May 28th, in company with the tea ships Tarppine and Sir Launcelot.

The English Cricketers sail from Liverpool to-morrow in the steamship City of Baltimore, to play a series of five international matches against United States and Canadian Cricketers. They will play one cricket match, instead of two as previously reported, in each of the following cities: New York, Montreal, Boston and Philadelphia, and will not play a match game of base ball. They are captained by the celebrated pitcher of the All England Eleven, with whom are G. Freeman and Rowbottom of the All England, and the following members of the United South of England Eleven: G. Griffith, T. Humphrey, H. Jupp Pooley, James Lilly White, and H. Charlwood.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The inquest on the bodies of the victims of the Abergele Railway accident was resumed. The railway officials reserved their testimony. The son of the station master testified the danger signals were properly displayed before the collision. It is reported the body of one of the dead has been recognized as that of Bayard Clarke, an American.

CORK, Sept. 1.—All the men arrested on suspicion of taking part in the Tipperary disturbance have been discharged, no evidence having been elicited to justify their detention. Mr. Scully is suffering severely from his injuries, and his physician reports his condition growing worse.

FRANCE.

PARIS, September 1.—A banquet was given to-day in honor of M Peirre Magne, Minister of Finance, at Pereguex, his birth place. M. Magne made an eloquent and pacific speech. He declared that peace would continue, because Europe needed it and the Emperor desired it. France was strong enough to preserve peace, and it was no one's interest now to break it. This declaration of the Minister was received with most enthusiastic applause.

Cotton Statement.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, August 31.—The yearly cotton statement shows the total receipts to be 6,56,698 bales; net receipts, 79,374 bales. Exports, foreign, 585,195 bales; coastwise, 101,302 bales. Stock to-night, 1,871. In addition to this amount, the steamer Governor Allen arrived late this morning, bringing 918 bales, whereof 887 bales are of the new crop. The cotton season is fifteen to twenty days earlier than last.

MOBILE, September 1.—The receipts of new cotton at this port were 307 bales, against 157 bales for the same time last year. The crop is estimated at two and a quarter millions.

VERMONT ELECTION!

All Hail the Green Mountain State!

REPUBLICAN MAJORITY THIRTY THOUSAND.

Gain of 8,000 to 10.000 Over 1867.

THE GROUND SWELL COMMENCED.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

MONTPELIER, Vt., September 1.—The annual election held in this State to-day resulted in the success of the Republican State ticket by a largely increased majority over last year, the election of three Congressmen by heavy majorities, with the choice of a State Senate unanimously Republican and the House nearly so. The returns from one-third of the State indicate a Republican majority of 27,000 for Governor. Good judges set it even as high as 30,000. The vote is the heaviest ever known in the State since 1840.

RUTLAND, Vt., September 1.—Returns from sixty towns show a net Republican gain of 2,980. The remaining towns to be heard from make the estimated majority 28,000 to 30,000, an increase over the majority of last year of from 8,000 to 10,000.

BURLINGTON, September 1—Midnight—The election to-day in this State has been accompanied with unusual interest and excitement, the Republicans and Democrats working hard. The returns up to midnight from fifty towns give Page 13,009, Edwards 4,420, being a large Republican gain over last year.

The returns from the northern and northwestern portions of the State come in slowly, but both parties agree that the Republicans have gained largely over the vote of last year.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

Grand Convention in Philadelphia October 1st and 2d.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, September 1.—The Soldiers' and Sailors' National Executive Committee met at the Astor House to-day. Present: The Chairman, General H. O. Barnum; Secretary, N. P. Chipman; Members: General G. J. Standart, Vermont; General A. W. Davidson, Maryland; General J. W. Fisher, Pennsylvania; General J. F. Rusling, New Jersey; Col. Hiram Appelman, Connecticut; Col; A. H. Grimshaw, Delaware; and several soldiers from neighboring States. A grand monster convention of soldiers and sailors was fixed upon, and in recognition of the hospitality extended to soldiers and sailors during war by Philadelphia, that place was designated for the Convention. The meeting will last two days, October first and second. All the organizations of the Boys in Blue and other Republican organizations, and soldiers and sailors generally, are invited. Arrangements are made to extend special invitations to leading soldiers and sailors of the war who support Grant and Colfax. Governor Curtin was requested, on behalf of the Committee, to invite the loyal war Governors who are his cotemporaries, and Governor Geary requested to invite all loyal Republican Governors now acting.

At this Convention it is expected fifty thousand soldiers will be present, making it one of the grandest demonstrations since the war. The details of arrangements are placed in the hands of General Collis, Chairman, and General Russell, Secretary of the Soldiers and Sailors Executive Committee, and General Joshua Owen, on the part of the boys in blue in Philadelphia, and member of the National Executive Committee of Pennsylvania. An address will be prepared and submitted to the Mass Convention.

TENNESSEE.

The President to be Asked for Military Protection.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NASHVILLE, September 1.—The House to-day concurred in the Senate's resolution to appoint a Committee composed of five Senators and three Representatives to proceed to Washington to lay before President Johnson the condition of affairs in Tennessee and request him to send a sufficient United States military force to the State for the protection of the people.

The Press and Times, Republican organ, favors the introduction of Federal troops in preference to employing militia, and urges the Legislature to strike out the provision of the militia bill authorizing the declaration of martial law by the Governor.

Andrew Fahrnhaner, a German, committed suicide here this afternoon by hanging.

Reception of Senator Fessenden.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PORTLAND, ME., August 31.—Senator Fessenden was warmly received here tonight. At a mass meeting he made a lengthy address, in the course of which he said he was forced into the Treasury against his will. He went in because, had he not done so, it would be considered a confession of want of confidence in the ability of the Government to go on. He was in the tightest place he was ever in before except when obliged to vote to acquit the President. He appealed to the people and issued seven-thirties, redeemable in paper, with the privilege of taking the bonds, and through his agents he promised the people that the principal should be paid in gold. The credit of a great nation must be preserved at all cost. He closed by eulogizing Grant.

Georgia Legislature.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ATLANTA, August 31.—In the House to-day, Mr. Sims, a negro, continued his remarks in defence of the eligibility of negro members. He said the introduction of the measure to unseat the negro members had cast a fire brand into the House, and if the question was pressed it would precipitate a war. Mr. Porter, a negro, followed and has the floor to-morrow.

ATLANTA, September 1.—In the House, to-day, the Republicans passed a resolution on the discussion of the question of the eligibility of negroes to office, allowing each negro one hour for his defense, and other members participating in the debate twenty-five minutes each.

ALBANY, N. Y.

Fall of a Building—Women and Children Buried in the Ruins.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ALBANY, September 1.—This afternoon a portion of the East wall of the building on the north side of Columbia street, west of Broadway, which was in process of demolition, fell, carrying away the floors of the second and third stories, and burying a number of people in the ruins. A number of women and children were on the first floor gathering wood, but how many are buried is unknown. The news created great excitement in the vicinity. The first person rescued was a boy named Robert Fitzgerald, who was found with a beam across one of his legs, but was got out with little or no injury. About three hours after the workmen succeeded in getting the body of Miss Hagan, sixty five years of age. She has been fatally injured and was dead when found. Deceased lived at No. 3, Chapel street. Subsequently the body of Mrs. McIntyre was found and brought from the ruins. She was the widow of the late Archibald McIntyre and lived in Van Tromp street. It was believed that other bodies are under the ruins and the workmen continued their work to a late hour, but no other remains were found.

Municipal Election in Wilmington, Delaware.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WILMINGTON, September 1—The election for municipal officers took place to-day. The contest was very warm and the vote was largely increased. Mr. Valentine, the present incumbent, (Republican) is re-elected Mayor by a majority of 120 greater than last year.

Stevedore Shot—Horse Disease.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

TROY, N. Y., September 1—A man named Corbelt, a boat captain, shot a stevedore named John Clancy, in the Sixth ward, on yesterday afternoon. The ball took effect in Claney's bowels and he may not recover.

Two cases of horse disease, similar to that in Brooklyn, have occurred near Stillwater.

The Express Robbers.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

TORONTO, September 1.—The express robbers extradition case was resumed today. No evidence was adduced against Moore and he was discharged. The other prisoners were remanded until the 8th instant, when the evidence for the defence will be heard.

Massachusetts Democratic Convention.

[Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BOSTON, September 1.—Most of the delegates to the Democratic Convention here to-morrow have arrived. No opposition is anticipated to the nomination of John Quincy Adams for Governor. A full Convention is expected.

New York Democratic Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ALBANY, Sept. 1.—Nearly all the delegates to the Convention have arrived and the indications are that Hoffman will receive eighty of the one hundred and twenty-eight votes on the first ballot for Governor.

Collision on the Lake.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 1.—Gov. Jno. W. Stevenson was this day inaugurated Governor of Kentucky at Frankfort, in the presence of a vast assemblage.

A Veto Sustained.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

COLUMBIA, S. C., September 1.—The House to-day sustained the Governor's veto of the Charleston city bill.

THE SÆNGERFEST.

Last Night—Immense Attendance—The Contest To-Night.

The better portion of yesterday was occupied by the various delegates and home members of the Sængerfest in the transaction of business pertaining to their association. A few more delegates arrived and were received in appropriate manner.

The grand concert took place at the Keystone Rink last night and was a most brilliant affair so far as attendance was concerned. Never in this neighborhood have we seen such a brilliant, fashionable and at the same time home-like audience assembled together than was that which crowded every available seat of the Rink last night. There were present representatives from all classes of society, but most conspicuous were the familiar faces of those we are wont to see assembled at our fashionable musicial reunions. From a bird's eye view of the audience, we should estimate the number in attendance at about four thousand and more. Never before did the Rink look more fascinatingly illumined as it was with its hundreds of bright gas lights, and the powerful Palmer calcium apparatus, rivaling the rays of the sun and lending a brilliancy to the unique decorations of the hall, and showing off the fashionably attired audience in the best style imaginable. The programmes were printed in German and English and profusely distributed throughout the house. There was no confusion, the ushers fully knowing their business and prompt and efficient in the discharge of their duties.

Fully four hundred male singers appeared on the stage together with a full orchestra. A magnificent Steinway grand piano occupied its place, and at times under skilful manipulation added much to the effect of the orchestral accompaniment.

The concert opened with a subdued and somewhat lifeless overture from the Opera of Felsenmühle. This production of Karl Gottleib Reissger was certainly never intended for so large a hall as the Rink, nor is it, indeed, a selection which conveys any proper idea of the power and brilliancy of the composer who sent into the world the Opera of Adéle de Foix, or the song of the "Two Grenadiers." The performance was by the Fest Orchestra, under the direction of our townsman, Prof. Teorge.

The Grand Chorus, with solos, quartette and orchestra, entitled "On the Open Sea," by Moehring, was without exception as brilliant a musical offering as we have ever heard. The solos were admirably sustained, the quartettes simply perfect, while the grand, mighty chorus rang out so clear, so full and beautiful that the audience were fairly spell bound. No terms of ours can express any proper degree of admiration for the chorus. There was no dragging, no note above or below that of its neighbor, but the sound gushed forth in sweet and anon thundering tones as though issuing from one throat. "Hark, hark! my people," a patriotic hymn, by Mangolds, full of power and brilliancy, was equally well rendered by a full chorus and orchestra, and like the preceding execution was met with an enthusiastic reception and encore. "Hail Morning," a sacred composition, which will ever sustain Kreutzer's claims to genius, was next rendered in very pretty style, but there was not so much fire in it as to warrant the hearty tokens of appreciation awarded the pieces which preceded. Next was Gounod's Sanctus, a composition of exquisite beauty when properly interpreted, but while many parts of the performance last evening were remarkably fine, still others were poorly sustained. It was in this that we discovered for the first time how the leading soprano had failed as a vocalist. It has been but a few years since she was rightly regarded first and foremost in the ranks of our amateurs and semi-professional singers, but her rich, gushing, liquid voice, as sweet as the sweetest song of the bird, has failed, and her many other day admirers last evening were sadly disappointed in her efforts. It may have been that the lady labored under a disadvantage, it being her first appearance for some time on the stage, and again, the Rink, perhaps, is not the most suitable place to display the rare powers of vocalization she certainly once possessed. The audience was considerably disappointed that the Misses. McCaffrey announced were not the famous Philadelphia vocalists, as they were led to believe—however, through no fault of the advertisement.

Upon the whole we did not admire Sanctus. Its few redeeming parts were the solos of Mr. Kleber, which were rendered in very fine style. Potpourri, from Faust, a pretty composition for the display of the ability of the orchestra, was brilliantly given under the leadership of Prof. G. Teorge. This performance was encored and drew forth the "Mocking Bird," another masterly execution, which was rapturously received by the audience.

Next came the gem of the evening, a solo "On the Meads," by Gumbert, by Miss Henne. This young lady has recently taken a high position amongst our amateur singers, having been inducted into musical circles through the choir of St. Paul's Cathedral, of which she is now the sweetest soprano singer. Her performance was earnestly encored and on her second appearance, she was received with a storm of applause. A trio from Atilla, "O! Salutaris," Verdi, was rendered with much graceful beauty by Mrs. Downing and Messrs. H. Kleber and E. Foerster. Next come a larghetto from D. dur. Symphony, Beethoven, a classical quartette arranged for stringed instruments. This was exquisitely rendered by the Messrs. Teorge and Zittenbart, and called forth a hearty encore. "Light! more light," by Abbe Lisst with chorus accompaniment of horns and trumpets was an exceedingly clever performance and excited universal admiration. Then came the glorious old national hymn of the "Star Spangled Banner," the rendition of which by four hundred master voices, left the audience perfectly delighted and enthusiastic.

The concert was a success and will long be remembered by all who were in attendance.

To night the great contest of the various societies will take place in Turner Hall. Only some seven or eight of the societies will take part in the contest which will be a remarkable musical treat, fully equal, if possible, to the concert of yesterday evening. Selections from the greatest German composers, such as Mozart, Spohr, Beethoven, Kreutzer, Moehring, etc., will form the programme. There will be no reserved seats excepting such as are kept for gentlemen accompanied by ladies. We hear that the Pittsburgh societies purpose giving a magnificent banquet after the contest to the visiting societies and very few invited guests; altogether five to six hundred persons will sit down to the tables, which will be spread in the halls on the first and second floors of the Turner building. If it be true that this banquet is to take place, it will probably be one of the grandest affairs of the kind which has ever taken place in the city.

Persons should not imagine that all of the attractions of the fest culminated yesterday evening, for to-night's contest is really quite as important, and will have additional advantage of having all of the intermissions filled up with tableaux by the Turners, who are so noted for their excellence in this line, and we feel sure that the Turners' Hall will be as thronged as the larger auditorium at the Rink was last night.

THE RIVER OF TIME.

Oh, a wonderful stream is the River of Time,
As it runs through the realms of tears,
With a faultless rythm and musical rhyme,
And a broad'ning sweep, and a surge subline,
That blends with the ocean of years.

How the winters are drifting like flakes of snow,
And the summers like buds between,
And the year is the sheaf so they come and they go,
On the river's breast, with its ebb and flow,
As it glides through the shadow and sheen.

There's a musical isle on the river of Time,
Where the softest of airs are playing;
There's cloud'ess sky and tropical clime,
And a song as sweet as vesper chime,
When the Junes with the roses are staying.

And the name of this isle is the Long Ago,
And we bury our treasures there;
There are brows of beauty and bosoms of snow—
There are heaps of dust, but we love them so!
There are trinkets and tresses of hair.

There are fragments of songs that nobody sings,
And a part of an infant's prayer;
There's a lute unswept, and a harp without strings,
There are broken vows and pieces of rings,
And the garment that SHE used to wear.

There are hands that are waved when the fairy shore
By the mirage is lifted in air;
And we sometimes hear through the turbulent roar
Sweet voices we heard in days gone before,
When the wind down the river is fair.

Oh! remembered for aye be that blessed isle,
All the days of our life till night—
When the evening comes with its beautiful smile,
And our eyes are closed to slumber awhile,
May our "greenwood" of soul be in sight.

—Theodore, of Bavaria, who in 1865, married the charming Princess Sophie, of Saxony, is about again to be married to the Princess Margaret, of Orleans, his first wife having died of diptheria early in 1867.

—A clergyman of the Established Church, in England, recently preached a sermon attributing the continued hot weather to the wickedness of the nation in supporting Gladstone in his measures for the overthrow of the Irish Establishment.

—A Presbyterian meeting house on Euclid street, Cleveland, has on its spire the most conspicuous cross in the city, and has its fine organ in the centre of the chancel. The Cleveland Herald, an inquisitive sheet, wants to know what the shade of John Knox thinks of that.

—The "Grecian bend" is one of the oldest fashions extant. Twenty years ago Saxe, in his poem on "Progress" alluded to it as a reigning fashion, and two thousand years ago Terence, referring to a prevalent Roman fashion, wrote:

"Maidens whom fond maternal care had graced
With stooping shoulders and a cinctured waist."

—Many of the stories about "Johnny Steele, the original "Coal Oil Johnny," are said to be mere idle tales. There is no doubt of his having squandered his millions, but he is said to have saved about $150,000 out of the wreck of his fortunes, and to have settled down to a quiet, orderly and respectable life.

—Mrs. E. Cady Stanton, a female politician who is gaining much notoriety by her peculiar views as expressed in the Revolution, thinks that Congress desecrated every day of the last session, and particularly the Sabbaths, but nevertheless Mrs. S. is willing to represent the Democrats in Congress herself and assist at the desecration.

—There is an anecdote told somewhere of a dispute, in which a boisterous, ill-bred fellow called his adversary "no gentleman." "I suppose you think yourself one," was the reply. "Certainly I do," answered the bully. "Then," said the other, "I'm not offended that you don't think me one."

—The Chinese Embassy at Boston the other day celebrated the birthday of the Empress Dowager of China, by kneeling in a row and bowing nine times to the North. Afterwards they paid a visit to the Po Tagen, (Mr. Burlingame,) who exchanged the usual compliments with them in honor of the occasion.

—There is so much oil in the Cuyahoga river at Cleveland, that it has become a dangerous neighbor to the city. The other day it took fire, and the flames running along the surface of the water would undoubtedly have fired the town had it been at any other part of the river, but, there was fortunately at that particular spot a bend in the stream and a high bank, against which the flames exhausted themselves in about half an hour.

—A beautiful monument has just been erected in the Alder-Brook Cemetery, at Guilford, Conn., to the memory of Fitz Greene Halleck. Upon the front tablet is the simple inscription cut in low relief:

"Fitz Greene Halleck,
1790——1867."

and upon the cornice of the pedestal the following lines from one of his own sweet songs:

"One of the few, the immortal names,
That were not born to die."

Upon the opposite tablet, in bas relief, is a lyre supported by two burning torches. The whole structure is of Rhode Island granite, seventeen feet high, and of the Egyptian order of architecture.

—If the people of Pennsylvania were constantly having their lives and honor endangered, and their property destroyed, their homes burned over them and their lives made burthens to them by the depredations and barbarities of a savage and inferior race of men, how loud would be the cry for vengeance, and how bitter would be the feeling against the citizens of other States if they looked placidly on it all and prated in romantic common places about the nobleness of their savage foe, and about kindness and leniency. And yet the Indians are burning, violating, robbing and desolating to their hearts' content among the white population of the western Territories, and the great majority of the eastern press speak of "the wrongs of the noble red man" as if he alone had wrongs. The Indians have but too evidently made up their minds to exterminate the whites from their borders, and the question has simply come down to this: "Shall the Indian or the white man be exterminated?"

The Blind.

The novel alphabet for the blind, made out of carpet-tacks, which we recently mentioned, has attracted the attention of Rev. Adam McClelland, a blind clergyman of Brooklyn, and pastor of a Presbyterian church in that city. Mr. McClelland, while attending the Union Theological Seminary, felt the necessity of some method whereby he might take notes that should be legible to himself. He therefore invented a slate and an alphabet that fully answered his purpose. The slate consists of a piece of chamois leather and a piece of sheet India rubber, each thirteen inches by nine, nailed on a board somewhat larger. On this the paper is placed. A moveable strip of brass, containing two rows of of rectangular holes, thirty-six in each row, serves as a ruler, and a small awl or stylus completes the apparatus. Each rectangle can contain six legible dots. By varying the number and position of these dots, fifty distinct legible characters can be readily formed. In this way Mr. McClelland writes his sermons three or four times more rapidly than could be done by an ordinary penman. A blind friend of his has in this way written all his classical exercises while attending Columbia College. A similar method and a superior slate (being metallic and grooved) has been invented by Braille, of Paals.

Mr. McClelland states that all geometrical diagrams and outline maps may be readily made for the blind on good paper, by a notched wheel at the extremity of a pencil. Boundaries, rivers, &c., may be distinguished by having wheels with notches of different sizes. In this way the mother of one of his Sunday school scholars prepares, without difficulty, maps for her blind child by tracing on the reverse side of an ordinary map with her wheel such lines as she desires to emboss. Though the child is the youngest in her class, she is usually at the head of it, and is so enabled to prosecute successfully her studies in one of the Brooklyn public schools. The young gentleman attending Columbia College already alluded to, traces in the same way the most difficult figures in the higher mathematics.

Though the blind may in this way write so as to be intelligible to themselves, yet they still require some method whereby they may write in ordinary characters. It is suggested that a premium should be offered sufficiently large to induce practical mechanics to devote themselves to the invention of a machine by which the blind could write in a way to be understood by persons who have lost their sight.

A Powerful Ship.

The most powerful ship of the British Navy, the Inconstant, is rapidly approaching completion and will be ready for sea early next year. She is a remarkable ship. With lines nearly as fine as the best built yacht, and engines which are to develop six thousand indicated horse power, it is believed that she will attain a speed far beyond that of the finest frigate ever launched. She will also carry the most formidable armament yet afloat, having on her main deck an armament of twelve and a half ton guns, (which is the most powerful yet afloat in a sea going ship,) and on her upper deck half a dozen seven ton guns, for chasing and distant firing. The Inconstant, although built throughout of iron, to withstand the enormous strain of her powerful engines on her extremely fine lines, will nevertheless have a copper bottom, to enable her to keep the sea without fouling, and a lifting screw, to allow her to have the full advantage of her spread of canvass. She will be manned by six hundred men, and carry provisions for six months.

EXTRAORDINARY BIRTH.—A lady named White, living in Maury county, about ten miles from Spring Hill, gave birth, yesterday morning, to four male children, weighing in the aggregate twenty-three pounds. They are all well formed and healthy. The mother is said to be a very fine woman, has been married about three years, and is but twenty-two years of age.—Nashville Press, 29th.

EDUCATIONAL.

THE WESTERN UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA.
Every Parent and Guardian who has a son to educate should know that we have in our Chartered Institution, endowed by the liberality of the generous friends of learning to the amount of $200 000 Preparatory, Commercial, and Collegiate in character, with a Faculty of a full number, and a course of study equal to the best Colleges. The rooms are large and well ventilated, the apparatus and cabinet of a superior kind, the Observatory belonging to it has one of the largest telescopes in the country, is endowed, is in charge of an astronomer of great ability, and four new instrumets added to it at an expense of $5,000. All the income from endowment and tuition is expended in supporting the Institution. The aim of the Board of Trustees, who are among the most enterprising and benevolent citizens, is to furnish the best advantages to all on as low terms as those enjoyed in any of our cities. The instruction in all the courses of study is thorough, and no temporary expedients being resorted to to secure popularity merely. Only Professors of ability and experience are employed.
Catalogues or information may be had at the University Building, corner of Fifth and DIAMOND STREETS, between 9½ and 10. The next term will commence September

RIVER NEWS.

The recent heavy rains have not as yet made any impression on our rivers worth speaking of, and it is not likely that there will be a rise for the present. The weather cleared up last evening and it looked as if the rain was over.

The Ida Rees No. 2 was sold at public aucton yesterday for $3,800, Capt. James Rees being purchaser. Capt. Rees now owns what was left of the Allegheny River Packet Company, the Echo No. 3 and Ida Rees No. 2.

Capt. Andy Robinson Jr clerk of the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati packet St. Charles, was in the city the other day.

—The Benton, now on her her way to Benton from Leavenworth, is expected to be absent only sixty days.

—The Thomas M. Bagby made a trial trip Saturday, at Louisville, and everything worked admirably. She was built Cincinnati for $45,000, cash. She went below the falls and leaves for Galveston

—The experiments of feeding passengers on the restaurant plan has proved satisfactory on the Belle Memphis, which made a trip from St. Louis to Memphis, saving $300 to the boat, and $4 each to the passenger.

—The Montana Gazette of the 16th says accounts from Benton and other places represent the water in the Missouri as very low, and grave doubts are entertained whether or not any more boats will reach Benton this year.

—The St. Louis Dispatch says: We have been shown a private letter from Benton, informing us of the departure on the 4th inst., of the mountain boat, Success, with one hundred and twenty passengers, $160,000 in treasury and five tons of silver ore. The Success should be here early next week, unless she is delayed on the shoals by low water.

—While Captain James S. Wise, of Cincinnati, was in Washington City recently, he collected from the Government the amount awarded the owners of the J. W. Cheeseman and Lady Jackson, for the loss of these steamers while in the service of the Government. The Cheesman was burned by the rebels in the Tennessee river, and the Lady Jackson was lost in Red river.

—The Cincinnati Gazette, of Monday, has the following: Mr. Barnhill, of Pittsburgh, on Saturday, sold the Charmer now laid up here, to Mr. John James, Sr., of Corn Island, near Rockport, Ind. for $7000, cash. She has been purchased expressly for the Cincinnati and Evansville trade, and will be commanded by Capt: P. K. Barclay, with Mr. Wm. Tichenor in the office. The Charmer will enter the trade as soon as she undergoes slight repairs.

—We clip the following from the Cincinnati Commercial, of Monday: The veteran Capt. John Hagarty was among the arrivals at the Spencer House yesterday, having just returned from Europe.....Captain Frank and Dan. W. Maratta returned to Rochester, Pennsylvania, in last nights train. We regret to announce that the latis still in ill health.....Mr. James W. Graff departed for New York, last night, en route for Europe.....John Greenough is in the office of the Missouri River packet Mary McDonald.....Captain Charles Mueleman arrived from Wheeling yesterday, and visits Louisville to-day. He will have an elegant side-wheel packet in the Wheeling trade, in place of the Potomac, as soon as there is water

—A few days ago we introduced a number of extracts from our exchanges on the De Haven steamboat project, with the remark that there was a good deal of doubt about the boat ever being built. The St. Louis Democrat says: It has been so with nearly all new projects; indeed, the greater the project, the greater the doubt. De Haven is one of the most likely men in the steamboat world to carry out this project to a successful termination. He is gifted with a clear foresight, and remarkable talent in mechanical matters, and his perseverance and confidence are boundless. There would be good reason for astonishment if such a man should fail in the rather moderate enterprise of building a large Mississippi passenger and freight steamer.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.

700 MILES

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. 160 miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is an absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, carshops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through traffic that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

The Union Pacific Bonds run thirty years, are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office, in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. The price is 102, and at the present rate of gold, they pay a liberal income on their cost.

The Company believe that these Bonds, at the present rate, are the cheapest in the market, and reserve the right to advance the price at any time.

Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

JAMES T. BRADY & Co., corner of Wood and Fourth Streets;

HART, CAUGHEY & Co., corner of Wood and Third Streets;

S. McCLEAN & CO., 75 Fourth Street;

PH. R. MERTZ, corner 5th and Wood Sts.;

AND IN NEW YORK

At the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau Street, and by

JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 59 Wall Street, and by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

HAVE you heard from Vermont?

EX-GOV. CURTIN speaks for GRANT and COLFAX, at Doylestown, Bucks county, on Thursday next.

VERMONT has been heard from.

A PROPOSITION is pending in our City Councils for the submission of the City Park question to the voters at a future election. No decisive action has yet been had.

WHAT says Vermont?

THE REPUBLICANS OF HARRISBURG imitated, on Saturday last, the example of their friends here, by adopting the system of direct popular nominations for their municipal offices. The result was in the highest degree satisfactory to all.

VERMONT says 30,000 for GRANT and COLFAX.

THE SOUTHERN DEMOCRATS have the correct view of the Democratic ticket. They rarely or never mention SEYMOUR at all. Everything is Blair. Their organizations are called "Blair Knights," "Blair Sentinels," "Blair Guards" &c. But none of them bear SEYMOUR'S name.

VERMONT has spoken for GRANT, COLFAX and the Union!

OF THIRTEEN HUNDRED MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, which the Internal Revenue has supplied to the Treasury in six years from 1863 to 1868, both inclusive, nearly nine hundred millions have been applied to the payment of the debt, and over five hundred millions more have been paid for interest.

VERMONT has spoken in thundering tones against the inauguration of a new rebellion. She has rolled up a majority approximating thirty thousand for the principles of the Republican party, a clear Union gain of ten thousand over the election of 1867. This is joy enough for one day. All hail, Vermont! Her work has been faithfully performed. She has spoken for Grant and Colfax as Pennsylvania will do in October. Keep the ball rolling. The people can yet be trusted.

THE "WHISKY RING," emboldened by their success in previous struggles at Washington, are now at work to carry Pennsylvania in October, hoping thereby to influence New York and secure both States for the Democracy and a perpetuation of their infamous influence over the Treasury. Their effort to crush Commissioner ROLLINS is but one move in the same game. It is ntaxed whisky and the systematic violation of the law, and not "fat mule contracts," which furnishes the money with which the Democracy are so lavish. The thieves of the "ring" can well afford to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars, if it should result, through the corruption of votes, in prolonging their gigantic robberies and enormous profits for another four years. The fourteen thousand dollars which the Democracy are now expending in this county were never honestly come by, and from no source but that above stated.

THE XXth DISTRICT ALL RIGHT.

A dispatch from a friend at Franklin, last evening, assures us that the differences which threatened the loss of that Congressional district to the Union party have been happily reconciled. The unselfish patriotism of Mr. JOHNSON, in yielding his undoubted technical right to the candidacy, in deference to the unanimous desire for harmony, and to secure thereby the absolute certainty of success in the district, exactly corresponds to our estimate of that gentleman, and entitles him to the sincere thanks of our friends without as well as within the district.

VERMONT strikes the key-note of the campaign.

THE OCTOBER ELECTION.

We beg our friends everywhere to bear in mind that the vote of Pennsylvania in October will powerfully affect the November election in every State of the Union, our own included. No matter how safe our particular county or our own particular Congressional district may be, still labor earnestly to get out the vote in October. That is the time when the work which will tell upon the grand results must be done. We have the votes to carry this State by a handsome majority, and if those votes are cast in October, the election of GRANT and COLFAX is a sure thing. As goes Pennsylvania at the first election this year, so will go the Union. Only let every Republican feel as if the country could not do without his vote, and that his neighbor's vote must on no account be lost, and all will be well.

VERMONT starts the ground-swell.

CITY POLITICS.

More than usual stir was visible among the Democratic leaders, yesterday, consequent upon a conference with their "left wing," the "Labor Reform" section, in the matter of nominations for city officers. It has been generally understood that the "fusion" arrangement which prevailed in the Democratic and Labor Reform county conventions, held in July, would be applied in fixing upon candidates for city officers, but of this there is now some doubt, the conference of yesterday having been of an inharmonious character.

A Committee of the "left wing" met with a Committee of the "unterrified," and the result of their conclave was a report recommending a Mr. MCBRIDE as the candidate for City Treasurer, on behalf of the Labor Reformists, the other candidates, for Mayor and Controller, to be agreed upon by the Democracy "pure and simple." This report was submitted to the Democratic Executive Committee for approval, which, however, it did not receive, whereupon the conference ended, and the Chairman of the Executive Committee was instructed to call a Convention of the Democracy to nominate candidates for city officers. We understand this to be a concession, on the part of the "clique," to the masses of the party, who swear that they are already staggering under about as much Know Nothingism and other isms as they are willing to carry in one canvass.

30,000 are the figures from Vermont.

THE TAXATION OF BONDS.

The National Banks hold $425,000,000 of the Government bonds and pay a Federal and State taxation of nearly $20,000,000 per annum.

About $600,000,000 of these bonds are held in foreign countries, and no tax could be laid on them without a violation of the contract, which their own government would be bound to resent, by war if necessary.

Our Savings Banks hold $150,000,000 of bonds, and any taxation upon them would be a tax upon the poor man's earnings.

The fire and life insurance companies of the country hold about $175,000,000 of these bonds; tax them and the charge would be necessarily paid by the people in increased rates of insurance.

Our Colleges, and other institutions of learning or benevolence, hold probably $75,000,000 of these bonds. Do the people want a tax upon education?

Large amounts of bonds are held by guardians and trustees for orphans and minor children.

It is thus seen that the greater proportion of the bonds either pay a large internal tax already, are out of the reach of any possible taxation without a foreign war, or could not be taxed without violating the fundamental principles of public policy. Nor should it be forgotten that the income tax in some form reaches alike all our bondholding citizens who make honest returns.

VERMONT thunder is rolling. It will be heard from Maine to Georgia.

THE Utica Herald states that before Gen. ROSECRANS went to the Virginia Springs, he visited Utica and was closeted for several days with Mr. SEYMOUR. He then proceeded to Washington to talk with Mr. JOHNSON, and afterwards to the Springs where LEE, BEAUREGARD and other rebels helped him in the preparation of their forthcoming address. When published, we predict that it will be the most impudent and absurd document of the campaign.

TEN thousand Democrats have had their eyes opened in Vermont.

AN INQUISITIVE ODD FELLOW sends us the annexed enquiry. Perhaps some member of the Order, who remembers the little circumstance therein hinted at, will afford the information, or the candidate himself may be willing to state the facts:

MESSRS. EDITORS—Is the A. W. Foster who is now Democratic candidate for the State Senate, the same A. W. Foster who, some years since, was initiated into an Odd Fellows' Lodge in this city, and shortly after published a pamphlet exposing their ritual and other secrets of the Order to the world? I. O. O. F.

FROM the blue hills of Vermont to the golden shores of California will the people rejoice to-day over the sounds heard from New England.

HISTORY OF THE NATIONAL BONDS.

In the dark days of the war of the Great Rebellion, when the nation was struggling for its life against millions of rebels, the expenditures necessary to maintain the terrible contest rose to over two millions of dollars a day. To raise this vast sum as fast as it was needed taxed to the utmost the wisdom and the energy of our statesmen.

But to make the matter worse, the leaders of the Democratic party labored assiduously to convince the people that the suppression of the rebellion would be impossible; and just so far as they were successful in that traitorous labor, they damaged the national credit and rendered the work of replenishing the treasury more difficult. As large an amount of legal tender notes as prudence would warrant were issued—and that consummate stroke of policy saved the country. But six times as much money as could be supplied in that way was needed, and no expedient remained but a resort to loans.

Early in the war, while greenbacks were yet almost at par with gold, a large amount of 5-20 bonds, bearing six per cent. interest, were thrown upon the market. For some of them, to our knowledge, gold was paid at par. Patriotic citizens who had money to spare came forward and poured it into the National Treasury, taking these bonds in exchange. They gave their money as fathers and mothers gave their sons, as wives give their husbands, and as these sons and husbands, gave themselves, to save the country. In vain would it have been to have called out men without this money, for it would have been impossible to equip, transport or sustain them in the field.

At that day no man thought of paying either the interest or principal of these bonds in anything else than real money. The absurdity of redeeming one promise to pay with another promise to pay had not entered anybody's head. Invariably the authorized agents of the government for the sale of bonds spoke of their being payable in gold and nothing else. This we know, and we know that they were authorized so to speak.

To render the bonds still more acceptable Congress exempted them by law from taxation as property, although it did tax the income arising from them, where the clear income of the holder exceeded six hundred dollars. Under the present law, that clear income must be one thousand dollars before it is taxed. Thus the large and wealthy bondholder is taxed, while the holders of smaller amounts, ranging from fifty dollars to more than ten thousand, is not taxed at all, whether upon income arising from bonds or anything else.

This exemption from taxation is thus a part of the contract between those who loaned their money and the Government, to impair the obligation of which is so plainly and pointedly unconstitutional that it cannot be done so long as we have a Supreme Court. Such men as FRANK BLAIR, who talks about trampling the laws of Congress into the dust, might do it; but there is no authority under the Constitution that could do it.

But so enormous were the sums of money required in the dark days of that tremendous struggle, that all these inducements failed to bring into the treasury as much as was required. A temporary resort to the scheme of compound-interest notes was forced upon the Secretary of the Treasury. These have all been taken up. Then came the vast issue of what are called seven-thirties, bearing 7 3-10 per cent. interest in currency; and so, among all these expedients, the country was triumphantly carried through the war, the Union preserved, the Rebel Confederacy crushed out of existence, peace restored, prosperity resumed, and the credit of the nation this day stands unimpeached before the world, except in its persistent disparagement by the Democracy.

Bear in mind that this vast financial work was borne exclusively by our own people. Not till the war was over would the bankers and capitalists of Europe touch our bonds. The aristocracy there, as here, were in opposition to us, and predicted the success of the rebellion. This was regarded as a broken and ruined nation; and it is truly astonishing that it was able to bear up financially against that hostile cry from the aristocracy of the old world, echoed as it was by every Copperhead throat of this country. A grander example of faith and patriotic devotion is not to be found in the history of any people than is found in the financial history of the war of the Great Rebellion.

But there are men now laboring to sully and deface that glorious record. There are scores and hundreds of fellows who have never paid a cent of government tax, and are not likely to do so, running round the country bellowing about bonds and taxes, gold and greenbacks, and other things which they neither possess nor understand. There is no better way to neutralize their poison than to call to mind the dark days of agony in which those bonds and greenbacks had their origin. No true American need be ashamed of either, and none will permit their heroic record to be tarnished by any act or meanness or bad faith.

WHERE DOES HE STAND?

In calling upon Mr. BURTT, the Democratic candidate for Congress, for distinct replies to several questions which we propounded to him the other day, we exercised a right which pertains to each voter in the district. That gentleman is presented as a candidate for election to a highly important trust; as such, the people are entitled to know this position on all questions of political interest. Accordingly, we addressed him, two days since, several enquiries, in respectful phrase and concerning matters which are prominent in current politics.

Those enquiries have not been answered as desired. And the Pittsburgh Post, assuming, as it doubtless has, the right to speak for Mr. BURTT, announces that they will not be answered, until the several candidates can meet for a joint discussion. This is not a creditable evasion. And the Post's talk about this journal, in that connection, is all flummery. Our enquiries had nothing to do with discussions between candidates; we asked a few civil questions, and have a right to a plain and categorical reply. Our enquiries expressed the curiosity of a large number of the people of the district, and are dodged in a very uncandid manner.

It is therefore virtually admitted, by the friends of Mr. BURTT, that he is trying to carry water on both shoulders. He has not the courage to say, for the information of the people, whose votes he solicits, which Presidential ticket he shall support, whether he is for or against the Democratic proscription of the laborer for opinion's sake, whether the eight hour system of labor should or should not be accompanied with a corresponding reduction of wages, or to define his position on the reconstruction question. Certainly, he is an admirable candidate to ask for the votes of an intelligent people.

We recommend to our fellow-citizens to press these enquiries (which appeared in last Monday's GAZETTE) upon Mr. BURTT, at his public meetings, and see whether he will persist in refusing to them a plain and clear answer. Hold him to it, friends, and you will either get the answer, or you will see some beautiful squirming.

THE DIFFERENCE IN GOVERNORS.

EX-GOV. TOD, of Ohio, in his speech at a Union meeting in Ashtabula county, last week, talked very much to the point, as follows:

"Seymour is an intelligent man. I know him well. He was Governor at the same time I was Governor. Mr. Lincoln called for volunteers. I sent him only thirty thousand, while Seymour sent him fifteen thousand. The President went round complimenting Seymour, and saying nothing about what I had done. I took Mr. Lincoln to task for this. I said, how is it? you are complimenting Seymour for his fifteen thousand men, and neglecting to compliment Morton and me? His answer was perfectly satisfactory. He said, 'Why, Tod, I never thanked Mrs. Lincoln for a cup of tea in my life.' (Laughter and applause.) The truth was, Morton and I had done nothing more than what was expected of us, while Seymour had. He had never done the like before, and never did afterward. It was not necessary to keep a Major General in Indiana, and Illinois, and Ohio, to correspond with the President, as it was in New York. In those States the Governors acted as the President's correspondents and agents. You will remember that remarkable dispatch of General Dix to Seymour, saying: 'I beg to let you know that I have troops enough at my command to take care, not only of the rioters, but of you.'"

THE ALLEGHENY SCHOOLS.

Meeting of the Board of Control—Opening of the Schools—Reports from Local Boards—Reports of Committees—Communications—The Geography Question—Warren's Series Adopted, &c., &c.

The Allegheny Board of School Controllers held a regular monthly meeting last evening in the Common Council Chamber, city building.

At seven and a half o'clock the President, Rev. John B. Clarke, opened the meeting with prayer, after which the roll was called by the Secretary, R. B. Francis, Esq., when the following members answered to their names:

Messrs. Barr, Brown, Barker, Borland, Chadwick, Crowther, Dunlap, Eaton, Francis, Kollock, Kimball, Ingham, Loomis, Lea, Lockhart, McClinton, Pitcairn, Parke, Shea, Thorn, Torrence, Tremble, Walton, White, Young, Alex., Young, Robert, and President Clark.

The minutes of the last regular and special meetings were read and approved.

REPORT OF LOCAL BOARDS.

The First Ward School Board made no report.

Mr. Lockhart, from the Second Ward Board, reported the election of teachers, which was confirmed.

Mr. Barr, from the Third Ward Board, reported that owing to the unfinished condition of the additions to their building, they were unable to open the schools as usual, but expected to open them about September 7th. They also reported the election of teachers.

Mr. Kollock, from the Fourth ward, reported the resignation of Miss Matilda Thompson, medium teacher in Sandusky street school, and the promotion of Miss Mary Duncan to fill her place. Miss Mary Hamill was elected to fill Miss Duncan's place in the primary department. The report was accepted and the action of the Board confirmed.

Mr. Lea, from the Fifth ward, reported the opening of the schools with a large attendance.

Mr. Chadwick, from the Sixth ward, reported a difficulty in that ward, caused by the refusal of the Second ward schools to receive scholars from their ward. This attendance of scholars from the Sixth ward at the Second ward was necessitated by the recent change in the school districts.

Mr. Lockhart, from the Second ward Board, made an explanation of the matter which was satisfactory.

Mr. Francis read the report of the Committee on rules and regulations, which, on motion of Mr. Eaton, was adopted.

The report of the Committee on School inspection, which has been published, was then taken up.

Mr. Eaton suggested that the report be taken up and acted upon seriatim, which was agreed to.

Recommendations 1 and 2 were adopted.

Recommendation 3, relating to a change in the method of giving permits to scholars, was lost.

Recommendation 4, changing the length of the vacations at the holidays and in April from two weeks to one was lost.

The remainder of the report with the preamble was then adopted.

A communication from the Eighth ward School Board was read by the Secretary relating to the difficulty in regard to the taxes in that ward. Appended to the communication was the following resolution:

Resolved, That we desire to remain and conduct our school affairs for the present year as formerly, at the expiration of which we will cheerfully unite with the Board of Control.

On motion, the paper was laid on the table.

Mr. Francis moved that the money now in the hands of the Controller be returned to the Eighth ward School Board. The motion was lost.

Mr. Francis then moved that the Secretary be instructed to invite the members of the Eighth ward Board to seats in the Board of Control. Motion carried.

The Board then took up the question on the adoption of a series of text books in geography for the use of the schools.

Mr. Crowther moved that Guyot's series of geographies be adopted, as recommended by the Committee.

Mr. Eaton moved to amend by substituting Warren's instead of Guyot's.

The yeas and nays were called on this motion, resulting as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Barr, Jno. K. Brown, Dunlap, Eaton, Francis, Kollock, Lea, McCance, Parke, Thorn, Torrence, Tremble, Walton, White, and Robt. Young.—15.

Nays—Messrs. Barker, Borland, Chadwick, Crowther, Kimball, Ingham, Loomis, Lockhart, McClinton, Pitcairn, Swift, Alex. Young and President Clark.—12.

The amendment did not prevail, nineteen affirmative votes being requisite.

Mr. Pitcairn moved to adopt Mitchell's series of Geography, which was subsequently withdrawn.

Mr. Alex. Young moved that Geyot's Primary and Warren's Intermediate be adopted.

Mr. Francis rose to a point of order, stating that the action of the board in adopting a series at the present meeting was illegal.

Mr. Alex. Young called for the gentleman's authority

Mr. Francis read a letter from the State Superintendent, in which he took the ground that text-books should be adopted previous to the opening of the Schools of each year.

After considerable discussion, Mr. Francis read another letter from the State Superintendent, in reply to one addressed to him on the point at issue, viz: Whether the Board can adopt a text book after the opening of the schools, when the matter had been taken up at a former meeting and not decided upon. The writer gave his opinion that, under the circumstances, he considered it legal to adopt a series of text books after the schools had been opened, if less than a week thereafter.

Considerable discussion here ensued, which finally terminated by the Chairman deciding that action in the matter, according to the printed law, was illegal.

Mr. Eaton moved that a night school be opened for the use of the colored children.

Mr. Barr moved to amend by referring the matter to the Committee on Colored Schools, to report at the next meeting. Adopted.

Mr. Park moved to call the yeas and nays on the adoption of all the books, including Warren's Geography, adopted by a viva voce vote at the last meeting. Carried. all the members but Mr. Alex. Young voting in the affirmative.

Mr. Kollock moved to accept the proposition of Copperthwaite & Co. to exchange a new primary for an old primary. The motion was carried, thus adopting Warren's series of Geographies for the ensuing year.

Mr. Barker offered a resolution to change the term of the janitrix of the colored schools from ten months to twelve. Referred to the Committee on Colored Schools.

On motion adjourned.

United States District Court—Judge McCandless.

Court met at the usual hour yesterday morning.

In the case of the United States vs. the distillery et al of Charles Locher et al., the jury found a verdict for the United States as to the distillery and the barrel of whisky. As to the wagon and harness involved in the case they found a verdict in favor of the defendant.

In the case of the United States vs. seven barrels of whisky owned by the same parties, a verdict in favor of the United States was rendered.

Frederick Miller and John Lee, of Crawford county, plead guilty to a charge of illicit distilling, and were each sentenced to pay a fine of twenty dollars and costs.

The next case taken was that of the United States vs. the distillery and rectifying house et al., of Samuel Greene, of Luzerne county. The case is still on trial.

In the bankruptcy branch a final discharge was granted and certificate awarded to Louis Mayer, of Titusville, Crawford county.

A petition for adjudication in bankruptcy was filed by John Baker, of Tioga county.

—An Omaha dispatch states the Indians drove off the wood choppers on the South side of the Platte river on Saturday, and set fire to five hundred cords of wood. Superintendent Denham says the hostilities are entirely confined to the Cheyennes. A Denver dispatch states that a family of nine persons, residing at Kiowa, were found murdered on Saturday.

—Among several acts just signed by Gov. Fenton of New York is one entitled "An Act to Amend the Charter of the City of New York," which provides for the election of Aldermen and Assistant Aldermen and abolishes the Board of Councilmen.

IS YOUR DISEASE RHEUMATISM?

Many persons, supposing they are suffering from this disease, have applied Liniments, Plasters and other Rheumatic Remedies without obtaining any relief, when in fact the cause of pain is a derangement of the Kidneys. These are small organs, but very important, and any obstruction or interference with its functions are indicated by pain in the back and loins, languor and weakness, difficulty in avoiding and unnatural color of the urine. A Diuretic should at once be resorted to.

DR. SARGENT'S

Diuretic or Backache Pills

Can be relied on for these purposes; they have a direct influence on the cells of the kidneys, assists nature in relieving them of any foreign particles, and mulates them to a healthy and vigorous action

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Contain nothing injurious, being composed of entirely vegetable remedies; they do not sicken nor gripe—on the contrary they act as a gentle tonic and restores tone to the system. They are recommended by all who who have tried them.

PHYSICAL EXHAUSTION.

Worn out with the burning heats of Summer, the human system requires to be reinforced and regenerated at this season. Strength has literally been steaming out of it under a temperature that necessarily produces exhaustion. Fall is the season of remittent and intermittent fevers, and the weak and enervated are always their first victims. Now, therefore, is the time for invigoration. Those who have neglected to tone and regulate the digestive and secretive organs during the months of June and July, can no longer continue to do so without imminent peril to health and life. Commence a course of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS without delay. Of all renovating, strength-sustaining preparations this is the most wholesome and the most potent. It does not unduly excite the most sensitive organization. Its mission is to preserve, regulate and restore. The tonic, anti-bilious and aperient vegetable elements which it contains are associated in the exact proportions necessary to put the whole physique into perfect working order. The purity of all its ingredients is guaranteed. It rouses the languid appetite, gives unwonted energy to the digestion, calms and braces the nerves, and replaces lassitude and depression with energy and cheerfulness; besides being agreeable to the palate and free from all the objections urged against the adulterated stimulants and tonics, of which it is designed to supply the place.

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE EAR.

In observations and notes taken by Dr. KEYSER, of this city, on the various diseases of the ear, he says that nine out of ten cases could be cured in their incipiency if application were made to some responsible and competent aural surgeon. The Doctor quotes from the opinion of Wilde, a well known aural surgeon, who says: "I fear not to reiterate the assertion which I made on several former occasions, that if the disease of the ear were as well studied or understood by the generality of practitioners, and as early attended to as those of the eye, it would be found that they were just as much within the pale of scientific treatment. * * Deafness is so common and so distressing an infirmity, and when of long standing so incurable, that we cannot too strongly urge all medical practitioners to make themselves familiar with the treatment of the diseases of the ear."

The Doctor says that nearly all annoying Discharges, Buzzings and Morbid Growths peculiar to the organ of the hearing, some of which had lingered through a score or two of years, can be cured or ameliorated by proper treatment.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, September 1, 1868.

The New York Stock quotations to-day as received by Mr. Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold 144⅜; 1881's, 144¼; 5-20's, 1862, 113¾; do 1864, 109¼; do 1865, 111; do new, 108; do 1867, 107¾; 10-40's, 105⅛; Cleveland & Pittsburgh 86¾; Fort Wayne, 101¾; Western Union Telegraph 34¼; Adams Express, 48; Erie, 47⅝; New York Central, 125⅞; Reading, 90¾; Michigan Southern, 85⅝; Chicago & Rock Island, 101¾; Chicago & North Western, 84½; do Preferred, 84½; Ohio & Mississippi Certificates, 29.

—The following, which we clip from the Chicago Tribune, of Monday, will not be very palatable to those who have been preaching up high prices for Grain and Flour. As will be seen, the receipts of Grain for the twenty-four hours ending on Saturday, were over half a million of bushels. We also see it stated that there are already thousands of bushels of Wheat on the banks of the Upper Mississippi waiting for transportation. Here is what the Tribune says:

The movement of grain toward this city is almost of the avalanche order; its receipt here is regulated only by the carrying capacity of the railroads and the number of canal boats available. The receipts reported this morning foot up a total of 530,291 bushels, or 24 full cargoes. The inspection of grain to 11 o'clock this morning, for Monday's report of receipts, is 398 cars of wheat, 296 cars and 76,300 bushels corn, 275 cars and 23,500 bushels oats, 55 cars rye and 34 cars of barley. Total, 1,058 cars and 99,800 bushels, or a total of 598,000 bushels. The shipments reported this morning were only 268,630 bushels of grain, but just about one half the receipts, and the purchases to-day gave promise of no better things for Monday. There is no disguising the fact that shippers are holding off for lower prices, believing present values to be fictitious. Their abstinence to-day marked a decline, which would have been somewhat greater but for speculative purchases to fill shorts for the month. As it was, shippers were able to make up cargoes at reduced prices.

—Closing quotations received by James T. Brady & Co.: Gold, 144¾; United States Sixes, 1881's, 113½; 5-20's, 1862, 113¼; 5-20's, 1864, 109¾; 5-20's, 1865, 111½; 10-40's, 105½; 5-20's, January and July, '65, 108½; 5-20's, January and July, '67 107¾; '68, 107¾; June 7-30's, par less ⅛; July 7-30's, do ¼; August 119; Sept., 119; Oct. 118½; Union Pacific Railroad, 102; Central, 103.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, September, 1 1868.

The general markets are quiet, and without important change in any material respects. While there is a fair volume of business, in the aggregate, the operations in most of the leading articles are of an unimportant character, and round lot sales are of rare occurrence. This is owing mainly to the uncertainty in regard to values; there are many who have the means and disposition to "pitch in," but they are timid in regard to prices, being very apprehensive about future movements.

BUTTER—Is in fair demand, and we can report regular sales of prime to choice at 35 to 37c.

EGGS—Scarce and in demand, and fresh packed may be quoted firm at 18c.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged at 15 to 16c for Western Reserve and Hamburg; 16 to 17c for Factory; 18c for Goshen, and 20c for Sweitzer.

GREEN APPLES—In good supply and dull but nominally unchanged; we continue to quote at $2 to $3,50 per bbl, as to quality.

HAY—Sales at Allegheny Diamond market of 64 loads at $20 to $30 per ton, and 3 loads Straw at $12 to $17. Baled Hay may be quoted at $25 to $30 for fair to prime.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in good demand at $2,25, and but little offering. Small sales of Timothy Seed at $3 25 to $3.50. Cloverseed is nominal at $7,50 to $8.

GRAIN—Wheat is arriving freely, though it is mainly consigned to the mills; this is owing to the fact that the margin is so small that dealers do not care about handling it. We continue to quote Winter at $2,10 to $2,12 for Red, and about 5 cents higher for White. Corn is in better demand and more active but not quotably higher, as yet; sale of 1,000 sacks mixed Tennessee at $1,10, and 5 cars prime Yellow at $1,11—the latter is generally held at $1,12. Rye is quiet and unchanged, with sales at $1,38 to $1,40. Oats in fair supply, but held firmly, and we continue to quote at 60 to 61c, on track, and 64 to 65c, in store. We can report two cars of Barley at $1,80, and 500 bushs do at $1,90.

POTATOES—Steady but unchanged at $3,50 to $3,75 per bbl. Jersey Sweets, $6,50 to $7.

LARD OIL—Is firm but unchanged at $1,20 for No. 2, and $1,50 for No. 1.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is in steady demand, but unchanged at 14 to 14½c for Shoulders; 16½ to 16¾c for Ribbed, and 18¾ for Clear Sides, and 22 to 22½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quoted at 19½ to 19¾ in tierces; and 21 to 21½ in kegs. Mess Pork $30,50 to 31.

SALT—Continues dull and unchanged at $1,75 to $1,80 to the trade, and $2, for small lots in store.

FLOUR—The market is quiet and unchanged. Spring Wheat Flour may be quoted at $10,50 to $10,75 for old, and $10 to $10,25 for new. Winter Wheat, $11 to $11,25. The "Pearl" and "City Mills" continues to quote at $11,30 for White Wheat, in barrels, and $11 in sacks and Red Wheat at $10,80 in barrels, and $10,50 in sacks. Rye Flour $9,50 for old.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, September 1, 1868.

CRUDE.

The market was more active to-day, the sales, in the aggregate, being larger than for several days previous, but prices, generally, are a fraction lower. Sale of 1,000 bbls, seller's option, 1868, at 10½c; 1,000 to be delivered on first water at 11c; 400 bbls, on spot, at 11½c; 200 do at 12c; 4,000, all 1868, seller's option, at 10½c; 1,000 each September to December, inclusive, at 11c, and 1,000, all 1868, buyer's option, at 12½c. As will be seen, seller's option, 1868, is off half a cent compared with yesterday, when it sold at 11c; while spot oil is unchanged at 11½ to 12c. At the close, we heard of an offer to buy all 1868, buyer's option, at 12c. The market continues in a very unsettled and complicated, though prices appear to steadily giving way, and the "bears" continue to have things pretty much their own way.

REFINED.

The market for Refined continues panicky and unsettled, though, as in the case of Crude, prices are slowly but steadily giving way. Occasionally there is a slight reaction, but it is of short duration, and the market soon works back to where it was previously. There was a sale of a "line" of 500 each from September to December at 30c, and at the close, spot oil was quoted at 30c; the last half of September at 30½c, and 30½c for any of the late months up to and including December. In Philadelphia, September is reported as having been sold at 30¼c, at 9 a. m.; 30c at 11; 31 at 12½ p. m., and October and November at 31c—some 12,000 bbls were reported as having been sold in that market at the above figures. Free oil is in fair demand, and we can report sales of 25 and 50 barrel lots, of standard white, at 28c. Light straw to white may be quoted at 25 to 26c.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, September 1.—Dry Goods: there is rather a better feeling in the market for domestic Cottons and we note advance in Lowell Prints of 1/16, and of the American of ¼c; the former now bring 11c and the latter 13¼c; this shows the tendency of the market. All the regular makes of Prints in desirable styles now bring 13a13½, while the Cocheco are held at 14c. Heavy Brown Sheetings firm at 16a17c for best Southern and Eastern makes. Bleached Muslins steady at 28c for New York Mills, 22c for Tuscarora, 18c for Masonville, and 16c for New York Ida Mills. Paper Cambrics in steady request at 13c for Masonville. Blackburn twilled Silesia commands 16c.

LETTER FROM OMAHA.

The following extracts we take from a private letter written by a former Pittsburger, now in Omaha, Nebraska:

OMAHA, August 28, 1868.

I have been placed under many obligations to friends for the receipt of several copies of your valuable and interesting paper, for which I desire to return my thanks. Did you know with what satisfaction it is read by the representatives of the Smoky City in Omaha, I am sure it would give you equal pleasure. Of another fact let me speak. We take pleasure in noting that since your visit to our city your paper appears more frequently, and is quoted considerably more by our Republican papers. I have recently noticed quite a number of extracts, and good sound Republican arguments, which are greatly helping the cause with us. When you passed through here the campaign had scarcely opened; but now we are red hot, and the fires are burning brightly all over the State. Not a day passes but what we have a demonstration somewhere in the county, and scarcely a week but we have a grand torchlight procession of the Tanners of Omaha, of which we have six companies, numbering about one thousand strong. This, of course, does not include the half or yet one-third of the Republican voters of the city. Our Tanners have made several excursions recently to Council Bluffs, Florence and Belleview, all of which, need I say, were successes. To-morrow night we have the demonstration of the campaign, and will give such a show as will show these Copperheads who claim the State how much they are mistaken. Every man is wide awake, and as Nebraska casts her maiden vote for Presidential candidates, everybody will be out and not a vote will be lost. From all parts of the State, which is being rapidly filled up by a foreign people, come the glad tidings that a majority of them are falling into the ranks of the Republican party. We will carry the State for Grant and Colfax by at least two thousand majority; this is reliable. One beautiful feature of the campaign in Nebraska is the fact that the young men are the most active and forward. As they were in 1861, so they are in 1868, true to the Union, and will have no other leaders but Grant and Colfax. With them there is no such word as fail; the Union must and shall be preserved.

Of other matters in our State I would say but little. The Union Pacific Railroad is marching with rapid strides towards the setting sun, and if "Old Sol" don't look out, Casement and his crew will be ahead of him and have to do their work by moonlight. I am reliably informed that the track is laid over eight hundred miles west of this place and still advancing at the rate of two and one half to three miles per diem.

Business in our city is very lively at present. Buildings are going up rapidly all over the city, and the inaction of a hot summer is being succeeded by a lively fall. Harvesting is over, and the plentiful crops have made glad the hearts of many farmers. The grasshopper pestilence, which has been doing so much damage in different sections of the West, did not reach Nebraska in time to do any great hurt, although they appeared in such numbers as to be beyond description, so I will not attempt it. In connection with the improvements going forward in this locality, I desire to say that the Government is about building barracks and quarters for a regiment of soldiers to be stationed at this point. The buildings and improvements are estimated to cost about two hundred thousand dollars. The citizens, with their usual generosity, have presented the United States with fifty acres of land for the purpose, and the work is to commence immediately.

There are many rumors on the streets to day of more Indian troubles, and from Cheyenne and Denver the reports come that they are again on the war path. I trust it is not so bad as reported, yet there seems to be but little doubt that these demons in human shape have again broken their faith with the Government and are at their barbarous work. Great excitement prevails and I should not be surprised at any moment to hear that some of the frontier settlements were sacked and burnt. There have been some changes of railroad officials on the Union Pacific recently. Among the appointments I notice that of J. N. Campbell, Esq., as Superintendent of the Laramie Division. He is an old Pittsburgher, and his many friends will be pleased to hear of his success.

A party of gentlemen from your city passed through here a day or two ago on a pleasure trip to the mountains. It consisted of Dr. Baelz, J. P. Henderson, Esq., of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company, Hon. J. H. Hopkins, R. M. Cust, Esq., and Prof. Gilson. They did not remain in Omaha long, but in all probability will on their return.

Well, I guess I have about tired you out, and so will close. Yours, &c.,

C. F. H.

A Fearful Scene.

Mr. Robert Heath, one of the principal coal and iron masters in North Staffordshire, lately celebrated the coming of age of his eldest son, by giving an entertainment to between 4000 and 5000 persons, at which nine hundred bottles of wine and 2,340 gallons of ale were consumed. The drunken orgies which marked the affair were most disgraceful. One reverend gentleman, noisy, wandering he knew not whither, hatless, and fighting with his friend and neighbor, was tumbled out of the pavilion. A gentleman of the press was discovered among the helpless at five in the morning in a field. Fights took place without number, and many men, women, boys and girls were seen helpless through drink, others reeling home, and numbers lying in the fields and lanes, dead drunk Sixteen men felled by drink, helpless and prostate, were counted within a radius of twenty yards, and scores scattered about, many bleeding, hatless, shoeless and coatless, incapable of movement or speech.

An Intrepid Fireman.

A compositor, his wife and three children were burned alive one Saturday night, in Rue Saint Antoine, the most populous district in Paris, and in presence of thousands of excited people. The fire originated from the sparks of a candle, setting fire to a basket filled with straw and eggs. All the lodgers to the fourth story were saved, and by the superhuman efforts of a fireman—Thibault—ten occupants of the other stories were rescued. He performed feats that put Leotard and Blondin into the shade. He rushed into a room almost in flames, strapped an old woman aged eighty on his back, climbed by hands and feet from window sill to window sill, till his frail ladder was reached. On reaching the humble abode of the compositor—there lay the infant a carbonized mass in its little metal cradle—a brother and sister in each other's arms beside the half consumed remains of their parents.

SARATOGA.

Extraordinary Revelations---An Inside View of a Fashionable Belle---How the Grecian Bend is Produced.

* * * The nights are, more absolutely than they ever were, devoted to folities the most fascinating, and exhibitions of fashionable manners and attire so absurd, that it would seem as if the tailors and modistes had conspired together this season to play a monstrous joke upon their patrons. Perhaps the dandies are worth less notice than ever. The difference between a fop and a gentleman in the United States is happily wide enough to render it impossible that any sane person should ever confound the two. But the difference between a female popinjay and a lady is here defined by such a curious and vulgar set of peculiarities appertaining to the former person, that I cannot forbear to describe them. In the first place, a toilet is affected, which of itself suffices to turn a woman in full dress into a caricature. The body and waist of the dress are remarkable in only one respect—the last is exceedingly tight, and the former rather loose at the top and exceedingly low. It is below the waist that what is monstrous in the costume first attracts and then repels the eyes of man. A hoop of moderate dimensions, overspread with an underskirt or two, and a dress of whatever fabric, are worn. Underneath the rear of this hoop, just below the waist of the person designated, is bound a coil of wire from two to three inches in diameter, which "throws out" and elevates the upper portion of the dress behind, and forms the foundation, so to speak, of an exterior protuberance called the panier. The panier is a bustle, more or less enormous, upon which, in successive folds or layers gathered up, or confined by a band encircling the dress from the stomach of the wearer around and beneath, an extra skirt, reaching just below the posterior, hangs, or rather "wobbles" to and fro. The dress has a train from four to six feet in length.

The posture affected in order to set off this attire is called the "Grecian Bend," a contortion of the body which, as it is highly improper in itself, I find it difficult to prescribe with propriety. High-heeled shoes dispose the wearer to incline forward, and high-heeled gaiters are therefore adopted by the "belle of the season." She is thus the more readily enabled to elevate her hips unnaturally behind, enhancing the aspect of the panier, to contract her stomach, and to form an S-like curvature of her upper shape by thrusting out her chest, drawing back her shoulders and bending forward her head. The latter is crowned by a hideous chignon, surpassing, by several inches, the thickness of the shallow pether brain. So bent and deformed, the belle constrains her elbows against her sides, and, with horizontal forearms and little gloved hands dangling from limp wrists, tilts painfully along. The profile of such a figure, and its ungraceful gait, are irresistibly suggestive of a lame kangaroo. When it is whirled and tossed about in a dance, one of the fashionable jumping-jacks in black broadcloth who are here so numerous, and so much alike that you can hardly tell one from another, the sight—what with the bobbing up and down of the woman's panier, and the agile sidelong leaps of the jumping-jack across the immense trail piled on the floor—is too exasperatingly ridiculous for laughter. —N. Y. World.

—A German woman in Providence, R. I., committed suicide because she had the consumption, and, being poor, knew that a lingering illness would use up her little stock of money which she wished her children to have.

FOUND.

That after repeated trials of other remedies, Roback's Stomach Bitters, Blood Purifier and Blood Pills are the best medicines extant to cure the diseases for which they are recommended.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

PILES.

There is no medicine in use so efficacous as Dr. Roback's Blood Purifier and Blood Pills for the permanent cure of Blind or Bleeding Piles; they strike at the root of disease, thereby removing the cause.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

TEMPERANCE.

There is, perhaps, no one thing that has done so much to promote the cause of temperance as that gentle stimulating tonic, Roback's Stomach Bitters; they strengthen and invigorate without producing the ill effects of alcoholic stimulants.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

LIVER PILLS

Are Pills that have a direct and powerful action o the liver, and relieve any inactivity or congeste state of that all important organ upon which debedds the whole process of digestion. The importance, then, of procuring a Pill that shall have such direct action without the ill effects of mercury, is manifest to every one; such Pills are Roback's Blood Pills; they are warranted purely vegetable, and can with certainty be relied upon, and are safe at all times.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

INDIGESTION

Is but another name for Dyspepsia, and the parent of many ills. Roback's Stomach Bitters taken in wine-glass-full doses, directly after each meal, will surely effect a permanent cure. Do not take our word for it, but try them.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

NIGHT MARE

Is one of the many diseases of which Dyspepsia is the parent. To effect a cure persons should avoid hearty food at night, and take a wine glass-full of Roback's Stomach Bitters on retiring to bed.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

RENOVATE.

During the Spring months it is one of the regular household duties to renovate, and, in the multiplicity of other duties one's own self is, in a great measure, overlooked; thousands of valuable lives might be prolonged, and many doubtless saved from premature graves by thoroughly renovating the system with Dr. Roback's Blood Pills, Stomach Bitters and Blood Purifier.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

MELANCHOLY

Is one of the many disorders of the nervous system, arising from a low state of the constitutional health or severe prostration after long continued sickness, and requires invigorating remedies like Roback's Stomach Bitters to restore the nerves to their natural vitality.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

WHO SELLS THEM?

The Agents for the sale of ROBACK'S BLOOD PILLS, STOMACH BITTERS and BLOOD PURIFIER are all Druggists everywhere.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞THE APPETITE FOR

Tobacco Destroyed!

Leave off Chewing and Smoking the Poisonous Weed, Tobacco.

One box of ORTON'S PREPARATION IS WARRANTED to destroy the appetite for tobacco in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be, ☞ IF IT FAILS IN ANY CASE THE MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED. It is almost impossible to break off from the use of tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit so firmly rooted; with the help of the preparation there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it who are willing to bear witness to the fact that ORTON'S PREPARATION completely destroys the appetite for tobacco and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as before he commenced its use. It is perfectly safe and harmless in all cases. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by tobocco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of tobacco from the system, and thus allaying the unnatural cravings of tobacco.

NO MORE HANKERING FOR TOBACCO AFTER USING ORTON'S PREPARATION! RECOLLECT IT IS WARRANTED. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession:

[From W. P. Heald, Esq., Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., April 24, 1868.

I hereby certify that I have used tobacco for thirty years past, and for the last fifteen years I have used two pounds per month. I have made attempts to leave off at different times. I have left off one year at a time, but always continued to hanker for it until I used Orton's Preparation, which has completely cured me of the appetite for tobacco. I would recommend all who are affected with this terrible habit to try the preparation, which will certainly cure it if the directions are followed.

W. P. HEALD.

[From E. W. Adkins, Knoxville, Tenn.]

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., August 5, 1867.

This is to certify that I had used tobacco to such an extent that my health had become greatly impaired, and my whole system deranged and broken down. In June, 1867, I purchased one box of Orton's Preparation, and after using it I found that I was completely cured. I have not had any hankering or desire for tobacco since using the preparation. I believe it to be all that it is recommended, and I would advise all who wish to quit the use of tobacco to try one box of Orton's Preparation.

E. W. ADKINS.

[From John Morrill, Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., March 24, 1868.

This is to certify that I have used tobacco for eighteen years; have tried many times to leave off, but have suffered so much from a dizziness in my head, and gnawing at my stomach, that I have soon given up the trial. A short time since a friend induced me to try Orton's Preparation (sold by you.) I have done so, and am completely cured. I did not in the least hanker after tobacco, either to smoke or chew, after I began to use the Preparation.

This Company, National in its character, offers by reason of the Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are as favorable to the Insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal in ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. The latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch Office of the Company in Philadelphia, or its General Agents.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Rooms of the Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street.

There have been twelve hundred and thirty cases disposed of by Mayor Drum since his inauguratson into office in January last.

Committed.—Alderman Lippert yesterday committed to the county jail Allan B. Rust, charged on oath of Christian Gerner with fraud.

Heavy Travel.—The travel over the St. street Bridge was so great with persons coming from the Sængerfest Concert at the Rink, that four toll keepers were required at the Federal street end to attend to the collecting of tolls.

Assault and Battery.—Charles A. Smith made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging David Jordon with assault and battery. He alleges that the accused committed an assault and battery upon him in a barber shop, at the corner of Penn and St. Clair streets. Jordon was arrested and held for a hearing.

A Vicious Husband.—Mary H. Stoessi made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging her husband, Christopher Stoessi, with assault and battery, and also for surety of the peace. She alleges that he beat and abused her and threatened to take her life. The parties reside in East Liberty. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Fires During the Mouth.—Maj. G. W. Murphy, our efficient Fire Marshal, informs us that during the month of August there were twenty-one alarms of fire, eight fires, and thirteen false alarms and fires where trifling damage resulted. Gross loss, $15,711; covered by insurance $15,411—leaving $300 not insured. The damage by fire to William Semple's dry goods stock and building not having been adjusted is estimated in the above at $10,000.

Alleged Assault.—Elizabeth Gallagher made information yesterday against A. J. Higby, a constable in the Eighth ward, for assault and battery. It seems that the defendant had a landlord's warrant against Mrs. Gallagher, by authority of which he was about to seize her household effects. Going to the house with that design, it is alleged that he abused the daughter of the prosecutrix, who attempted to interfere with him, by pushing her violently against the door. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

The Lukens Lodge, No. 381, I. O. of G. T., of McKeesport, have elected and installed the following officers for the ensuing term of three months: W. C. T., Jno. Baker; R. S., Wm. Gould; L. S., Miss Emma Crissinger; W. V. T., Miss Emma Lowe; P. W. C. T., G. M. Murphy; Chaplain, O. C. Critchlow; Marshal, Thomas H. Evans; Dep. Marshal, Miss Hattie Soles; W. S., Miss Lester Reynolds; A. S., Miss Ann Lynch; T. S., Geo. K. Newell; W. T., James C. Phillips; I. G., Miss Mollie Ellis; O. G., Elmer Sinclair. This Lodge meets every Tuesday evening.

The gentlemen who are superintending the work of improvement on the Allegheny Commons seem thoroughly to understand their work, but if they would take a hint from an outsider they might save future trouble. By looking at the Commons as they are, or rather as they were, one could plainly see just where the people want most to walk, and if some of the new paths were put just where those old ones are, they would certainly be in the most convenient places, and there would be but little trouble hereafter in keeping people off the grass. Of one thing we feel assured, and that is that the people will wear the paths there if they are not put there for them, in proof of which witness public squares in any other city.

Pittsburgh Letter Carriers' Report.

The following is the report of the Pittsburgh letter carriers for the month of August just passed:

	Mail letters.	Drops.	Papers.
Deliveries	85,845	9,754	28,654
Collections	57,574	6,527	1,920

Throughout the business portions of the city there are five deliveries and seven collections made daily. One collection is made after seven o'clock in the evening.

Selling Liquor on Sunday.

Wm. Carson made information yesterday before Alderman McMasters against Andrew Shehan for selling liquor on Sunday. The prosecutor alleges that the defendant keeps a regular "shebang" on the corner of Webster and Tannehill streets and is accustomed to sell liquor to a crowd of all colors, sexes and ages who collect there usually on Sunday to the great annoyance of the neighborhood. The accused was arrested and gave bail for a hearing.

A Child Poisoned.

Wilson Stroup, a little child about two years of age, son of William Stroup, residing near the copper works in the Fourteenth ward, was poisoned on Monday evening by eating "Jamestown" weed. It had been out playing with some children, one of whom observed it eating the weed, and fortunately for the child, told his mother. It was taken suddenly ill, shortly afterward and Dr. Roberts was sent for. By the time he arrived several other physicians had been called in. The proper antidote was administered and the child will probably recover.

Serenade to Gov. Geary.

Governor Geary was serenaded last evening about twelve o'clock by a delegation from the Sængerfest societies, about two hundred persons composing the party, headed by Teorge's brass band. They gathered in the rotunda of the hotel, and after making the whole house ring with their sweet strains of vocal and instrumental melody, were addressed by the Governor, who appeared and returned his thanks for the compliment in a few well timed and felicitous remarks which were frequently interrupted with applause.

Fires of the Month.

The following is the report of S. F. Paisley, Superintendent of the Fire Alarm, for the month of August: During the month there were ten fires in the city. The total loss was $375. Total insurance, $200. The largest fire was that at Kane & Kellar's, on First street, on the night of the 26th ult. There were seventy-six blows struck on the big bell in striking alarms, and two hundred and forty-eight in striking the hours during the month. By the use of the telegraph there were two lost children restored to their parents during the month.

Social Picnic.

The annual picnic of the A. W. S. C. will will be held at McFarland's Grove Friday, the 4th inst. From the character of the gentlemen whose names appear upon the ard as managers, we have no hesitancy in ying that it will be a most delightful af- We have the honor of a personal ac- ntance of several of the managers, and them to be gentlemen in every sense word. POLITICAL.

Meeting on North Common, Allegheny.

The Republicans of the Second ward, Allegheny, held a meeting on the North Common last evening. A commodious and substantial stand had been erected on the lower end of the North Common equidistant from Montgomery and North avenue. The stand was beautifully decorated with small flags bearing the words "Grant and Colfax," Chinese lanterns, and a spledid transparency of the Second ward Grant Club. Smith's band was in attendance and before the hour for opening the meeting, a large concourse of people had assembled around the stand numbering two or three thousand.

The meeting was called to order by John McDonald, Esq., who proposed the following list of officers for the meeting:

PRESIDENT—James W. Arrot.

VICE PRESIDENTS—John McDonald, D. Dennison, Z. Gillespie, Richard Nuttall, Capt. W. P. Herbert, Wash. McClintock, Geo. R. Riddle, H. M. Dunlap, Jas. Crow, Jno. K. Brown, S. H. Geyer, J. Brown, Jr., John M. Tate, John Sterrett, Jas. Reed, G. Shafnett, A. Leggate, T. F. Grubbs, L. D. Hedger, A. Richey.

SECRETARIES—W. P. Price, George D. Riddle, R. Smith, Wm. Tate, Jr., and reporters of the press.

The Chairman thanked the meeting for the honor conferred upon him in selecting him to preside, after which he introduced Hon. George Wilson, who addressed the meeting at considerable length. He held that the Democratic party had always opposed the interests of the workingman of the country. It had opposed every measure of the Government to crush out the wicked rebellion which it had forced upon us, and after the South had been conquered into submission, the Democratic party had opposed all measures adopted for the reconstruction of those States, in fact, it was literally an oppositiou party, opposing all that was good and advocating all that was evil. The speaker then discussed the taxation and financial question respectively, in an able manner, after which he closed with an appeal to all to organize, and go into the campaign with a determination to win.

The Chairman then introduced the veteran campaign singer, J. W. Pope, who sang the "Race to the White House."

The Chairman then introduced His Excellency, John W. Geary, Governor of the State.

Governor Geary said that it was not his intention to give an extended exposition of the questions at issue. The main questions, the reconstruction of the States lately in rebellion, and the financial question, had both been ably discussed, and he felt that there were some other subjects which should be spoken of, and thought it had as well come from him as from any other source. He thought it his duty to speak of the great leader of the party, Gen. Grant, who has done more for his country than any other living man in the nation, and refute some of the infamous charges which have been made against him by the Democracy.

When the war closed the Democracy as well as the Republicans gave Grant the credit of crushing the rebellion. At that time they claimed him as one of them, but since his nomination they have changed wonderfully. He said that Grant was charged with drunkenness. He had known Gen. Grant for twenty years; had been with him on the battle field, met him at the banquet and had been with him in Mexico and in California, and had never seen him taste intoxicating liquors, nor had he ever seen him under the influence of liquor. He then spoke of Grant's education, which he said was certainly superior to that of McClelland, whom the Democracy nominated four years ago. He knew Grant to be a sober man and a scholar, and his record would prove him such. His speeches and letters if brief were always to the point.

After speaking in glowing terms of Schuyler Colfax, to whom he said the Democracy objected because he was a temperance man, the Governor referred to the black record of Seymour during the war, relating many incidents with which he was personally cognizant, which proved the New York rioter a traitor to the Government.

The Governor then appealed to the people to lay aside all local issues until the dangers which threatened the country were past. The life of the nation depended upon the result of the present contest, and was of more consequence than any local issue. He closed by proposing three cheers for Grant and Colfax and the State and County ticket, which was responded to with a will.

Prof. Pope was then loudly called for and sang the following original song:

THE NEW YORK CONVENTION.

AIR—"MISTLETOE BOUGH"

The Democrats met in old Tammany Hall
On the Fourth of July, with snakes, rebels and all,
And when the Old Devil came up through the floor,
They gave him the welcome they ot gave before;
They filled up their glasses, a bumper they tossed,
And cheered for their cause which they had not yet lost;
The Devil grew sick, and he turned very pale
From the top of his horns to the tip of his tail,
And sighed for his throne in New York.

They settled them down and began to discuss
Which man in the crowd then could make the most fuss,
So they voted for Andy, they voted for Chase,
And General Hancock they put in disgrace.
And thus for some days with much whisky on board,
The nation with slang and the Devil they bored,
'Till the Devil himself in his wrath did swear
That saints would imagine all hell was there,
And sighed for his throne in New York.

At last they sat down, overcome with their grog,
Not knowing a snake from a green-backed frog;
But they found in the crowd a half-coward, half snake,
And with shouts of success this great monster they take;
But then came the tug, who to hitch by his side,
Till a Blairy-eyed serpent quite tipsy they spied,
And then rose the shout for their Seymour and Blair
And the Devil disgusted went off in despair,
And sighed for his throne in New York.

The Devil went home to his fire and smoke,
And thus to his imps in great trouble he spoke:
"I'm ruined at last by that Copperhead sham,
For Seymour they take and he was not my man,
He'll tremble and hide, or like Davis he'll flee
Or surrender to Grant, as did old Rebel Lee;
And Blair will go down like a Southern bond
And hide with young greenback in some filthy pond,
And I know I'm beaten this fall."

The President then introduced W. T. Haines, Esq., who made one of the most forcible and eloquent speeches that has been delivered in this district during the campaign.

He said that although a stranger to most or perhaps all the audience, yet he stood upon the broad platform of the Republican party which was born in Kansas only a few years since, the party which in its infancy had made a free State, and in its mature years had saved a nation, and hence he felt that his interest was in common with his hearers. The speaker then proceeded to discuss the questions at issue in a masterly manner, and although he spoke for over an hour, the audience listened with marked attention. He closed with a beautiful peroration, enjoining upon all to do their duty faithfully in the present campaign. The country owes a debt of gratitude to the fallen heroes which it could only pay by perpetuating the sacred principles for which so many valuable lives have been sacrificed. The Democracy forget the dead heroes of the past, that they might reward living traitors of the present.

The Allegheny Quartette Club was then introduced and sung "Grant Shall be President," which created intense enthusiasm.

Professor Pope was again called upon, and responded with "The Miller and His Three Sons," after which the meeting adjourned.

Meeting in the Twelfth Ward.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Union Republicans of the Twelfth Ward was held in their wigwam last evening for the purpose of dedicating it to the service of the party during the present campaign. A large delegation from the Ninth Ward Etna Cornet Band and the Central Glee Club were present. Dr. Brashear called the meeting to order and read the following list of officers:

Chairman—W. R. Ford.

Vice Presidents—Wm. S. Dixon, James Mackrell, Samuel McKee, A. J. Cochran, Wm. Johnston, Robert M. Reed, Samuel T. Paisley, A. Mackein, Jas. H. Hobbs, David McClelland, C. H. Armstrong, Jas. Potts, Fred. Rivers, Wm. H. Berger, Thos. Rosewell, Jr., T. W. Welsh, John Paisley, Jas. B. Hill, John W. Taylor, Christopher Woods, Wm. Hamilton, David L. Mitchell, R. M. Jones, Mr. Powell, Thos. Simpson.

Secretaries—Wm. Ramsey, J. E. McKelvy, Wm. Clark, J. H. Mackrell and the reporters of the Republican press.

W. R. Ford, on taking the Chair, introduced W. S. McCune, who entertained the vast assembly in a speech of a half hour's length. He argued that at this juncture the life of the nation is at issue. Human liberty, national integrity is at issue. The conflict is still between freedom and slavery. He argued the principles of the present Democracy were the dregs of English aristocracy, brought into the country before '76. The Republican party always held that the welfare of the people is the supreme law of the land. The Southern aristocracy has always been opposed and by the assistance of the Northern Democracy endeavored to advance their selfish ends. To resist their encroachments the Republican party sprung into existence with Fremont as the standard bearer and when defeated, camly submitted, but when in 1860 the Republicans were successful, when the Government was passing from the hands of the corrupt to the hands of the pure, when the sun of their power was setting they rebelled and sought to set up an aristocracy with slavery as its corner stone. Had the Northern Democrats struck hands with the Republicans to put down the rebellion, it would have lasted but a few months. He ably discussed the financial question, and urged thorough organization.

A campaige song was rendered in fine style by the Central Glee Club.

H. C. Mackrell was next introduced and entered into a discussion of the public record of Horatio Seymour, the leaders of the Democratic party, and the Pendletonian theory of paying the debt. He argued that neither bonds nor greenbacks was the issue, but that it was a blind to detract the unthinking from the real issue.

Another song by the Glee Club.

Major A. M. Brown was then introduced. He discussed the characters of the candidates of the Democracy during the war. That Horatio Seymour had been and is a consistent rebel. That of the delegates of the South for the New York Convention not one of them was ever known to be in sympathy with the Union soldiers, but were either instrumental or encouraged their starvation in Southern prisons. Blair was nominated on account of his revolutionary utterances. That Mr. Burtt is not a representative of the laboring class, but earned his bread easier than any other man in our city. The laboring party should have put on their ticket a laboring man—not such an abortion on the party as Burtt. The effect of the inflation of the currency. The speaker discussed the financial question in all its points in an able manner.

After Mr. Brown closed three cheers were proposed and given for the man that secured the nomination of Colfax. Another song by the Central Club.

The Ninth ward Club while on their way to attend the meeting was cowardly attacked by the Democracy concealed in the alleys and backyards in the neighborhood of Locust street and the old market house in the Old Fifth ward. Stones and missiles of all kinds were thrown. A number in the procession were struck and the transparences riddled.

Second Ward, Allegheny—Special Election of Councilman.

The special election in the Second ward, Allegheny, for the purpose of filling the vacancy in the Common Council caused by the resignation of W. H. Dunham, member from the ward, was held yesterday in accordance with the Mayor's proclamation. The candidates for the position were Mr. Bernard Gray, citizens candidate, and first in the field, and Mr. Alfred Slack, the regular Republican nominee. The friends of both parties labored actively in the canvass and the contest was quite spirited, as evinced by the vote polled. The result was in favor of Mr. Slack, the vote standing at the close of the polls:

Slack	395
Gray	211

Mr. Slack is a gentleman well known in the ward, having resided there for a number of years and being acquainted with all the interests of the section which he represents, and possessed of liberal business and legislative experience, he will make a most excellent representative.

Seventh and Eighth Ward Club Meeting.

The Grant Club of the Seventh and Eighth wards held a meeting at the Franklin Street School House last evening.

The Chairman of the Committee on Uniforms reported that one hundred uniforms (capes and caps) complete would be ready for delivery on Monday evening next.

The Committee on Finance reported the treasury in healthy condition.

A resolution changing the time of holding the regular meetings of the Club from Tuesday to Monday evening was adopted. The regular meetings will therefore be held every Monday evening hereafter.

The Club resolved to turn out en masse "armed and equipped" on Monday evening next to attend the meeting at City Hall, at which Senator Sherman is announced to speak.

After the transaction of further business the Club adjourned.

Grant Club of the Second Ward, Allegheny.

The Republicans of the Second ward, Allegheny, have organized a Grant Club and elected the following officers:

PRESIDENT—John McDonald.

VICE PRESIDENTS—Hon. Simon Drum, Captain W. P. Herbert, J. M. Tate, J. Kirkpatrick. Alfred Slack, Hugh Ward, R. M. Dickey.

SECRETARIES—Geo. D. Riddle, W. P. Price Jas. Hunter.

TREASURER—John Brown, Jr.

FINANCE COMMITTEE—W. Tate, Alex. McKenna, George Bothwell, W. P. Price, Captain Stewart.

BLOCK COMMITTEE—J. K. Brown, Jas. W. Hall, R. M. Dickey, J. McK Lusk, Alfred Slack, A. Richey, Robt. Patton, L. H. Eaton, D. Dennison, W. P. Herbert. Harry Blair, John P. McKendry, Thos. Ward, W. S. Taylor, John Brown, Jr., A. Leggate, Andrew Aul, N. Sommerville, Jas. Wilson, B. Wadington.

The Allegheny County Tanner Club met at City Hall on last evening and organized Companies A and F. The Committee on Arrangements announced that the uniforms would arrive to-morrow and be ready for distribution at the office of the Club at City Hall.

The Chief Marshall, Col. Joseph Browne, announced that he wished the Club to meet for parade on Friday evening at seven o'clock.

The Hall will be open day and night during the campaign. The roll can be found at the Headquarters every day, and young men are invited to enroll.

A very fine Glee Club was organized after the meeting adjourned.

Murderous Affray near Monongahela City—Probable Homicide.

On Saturday afternoon a man who had been attending the camp meeting near Monongahela City, while waiting for the Brownsville packet to arrive, on which he intended to take passage, wandered into the orchard close by and helped himself to some fruit. He was detected in the act by the owner of the place, who remonstrated with him which caused an angry controversy, during which the former struck the intruder a powerful blow on the head with a heavy club, felling him to the ground and fracturing his skull. The injured man was taken to his home on the boat, where it is reported death ensued on Monday evening. We were unable to ascertain the names of the parties.

Death of U. H. Myers—Resolutions of Respect.

The funeral of Uriah H. Myers, Esq., who died in Harrisburg Saturday morning, the 29th ult., took place yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, from the residence of his brother-in-law, Chas. S. Gill, No. 23 Second street, the remains having been brought from Harrisburg Monday evening. The deceased was a member of the Typographical Union of this city, which, pursuant to a resolution adopted at a special meeting held Monday evening, attended the funeral in a body.

The Harrisburg Patriot of Monday contains the following relative to the death of Mr. Myers:

Few men of so modest and retiring a disposition as the late U. H. Myers, who was so suddenly removed from among us by death, on Friday night last, possessed so many sincere friends as that gentleman. This was apparent to all who visited his late residence to see his remains on yesterday evening. He was widely known and universally esteemed. To his employes especially was he kind and considerate, and they, with all their associates, endeavored last evening to render a fitting tribute to the man who has been to them more of a friend than a master. A meeting of Typographical Union No. 14 was called and held in the office of the Patriot, when resolutions were adopted condoling with the family of the deceased in their bereavement. The following are the resolutions:

Resolved, That we, the printers of Harrisburg, bowing reverently to the inscrutable decrees of Divine Providence, profoundly regret the death of U. H. Myers. He was a liberal employer and a just man, whose demise has entailed a loss to the craft which it will be hard to replace.

Resolved, That we respectfully tender our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family of the deceased, whose sorrow cannot be too great to be assuaged by Him who has promised to be a husband to the widow and a father to the fatherless.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be engrossed and transmitted to the family of the deceased, and that they be published in the daily papers of Harrisburg.

After the adoption of the above resolution the Union adjourned, and the members to the number of between fifty and sixty, headed by the proprietors of the various printing establishments of the city, marched to the residence of the deceased, where a beautiful floral wreath, the offering of the members of the Union, was placed upon the bosom of the deceased, after which the procession passed around the coffin with mournful tread, their sad faces and downcast eyes giving evidence of the sincerity of their regard for the man who was to them a friend and benefactor. After withdrawing from the presence of the dead, a committee was appointed to escort the remains to the depot, as they were taken to Pittsburgh by the Philadelphia express train, which left at 3:30 A. M. The remains were followed to the depot by a large number of sorrowing friends, who will deeply feel the loss they have sustained in the death of this much lamented gentleman.

Ku Klux Klan.

A gentleman, well known in this city, and who is perfectly reliable, has just returned from Tennessee, where he has seen and heard much of the doings and effects of the Ku Klux Klan. Among others, he told us of the case of a Pennsylvanian there, a Mr. Dunlap, of Warren county, Penna. Mr. Dunlap is a teacher, and taught white children five days in the week at Shelbyville, and on Saturdays and Sundays gathered the colored children of the neighborhood together in the woods, and with logs and stones for seats taught them to read. He had some one hundred and twenty colored pupils. One night his house was surrounded by a body of armed horse men, so disguised in white and red draperies that no feature of either horse or man could be recognized. On his refusal to obey their command to come out, they burst into his house, seized and stripped him, tied him to a tree outside, and with a leather thong gave him two hundred and seventy lashes on the bare back. In spite of the severity of this punishment Mr. Dunlap recovered and persisted in his horrid crime of endeavoring to teach ignorant colored children during his spare hours. To this persistancy he owed the following letter, which is copied verbatim from the original document.

CHAMBER OF DEATH, No. 45 XIIX 2,160, July 9, 1868.

MR. DUNLAP:—By order of M. Gen. of the K. K. K. I wright you this letter to notify you to leave Shelbyville by the 16th of July 1868 if not we will take you ought ty you to a stake and then burn you to DEATH

Beware

Shelbyville

Mr. Dunlap left, but asserts that he will return in September well armed and ready to stay.

Our informant is brim full of incidents of this sort, and of many so much worse that we dare not publish the disgusting details of their horrid beastly brutality.

Arrest of an Alleged Fugitive.

Upon the arrival of the Cincinnati express train at the Union Depot yesterday, officer Rook arrested one of the passengers on suspicion of being the perpetrator of the robbery of the Adams Express Company's office at Altoona. During the morning a dispatch had been received by the officer, giving a description of the alleged robber, which partially corresponds with that of the arrested individual, who was pointed out as the only man getting aboard of the train at Altoona. An information was made by Mr. J. S. List, one of the express agents here, charging the prisoner, who refused to give his name, with larceny. He was then taken in charge by officer Bell, who started with him for Altoona. It is said that the fellow, before starting, slipped into the hands of Mr. Bell an elegant gold watch and several gold lockets, together with a scrap of paper reading, "keep mum; if you let me go, what you have is yours." He was "let go," towards Altoona, with Mr. Bell.

Aggravated Assault.

Louis Grader came before Alderman McMasters yesterday and made information against three men named respectively Wilhelm, Hass, and Miller, charging them with aggravated assault and battery. Grader alleges that he went into Beall's Tavern on the Washington Pike, on Monday afternoon, and that while there the parties mentioned came in. They accosted him and demanded a treat at his expense which he says he refused to accede to, whereupon they pitched upon and beat him in an unmerciful manner. He further alleges that not content with this they took a gun belonging to him valued at fifty-five dollars, and broke it to pieces. For this last offence he makes an additional charge against Hass for malicious mischief. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

Messrs. Coe, Wetherill & Co., Advertising Agents, Philadelphia.

We are glad to learn that this firm is recognized by our community as one of the most useful institutions, as well as one of the most prompt, reliable and responsible business houses of our great city, and that their ability, energy and sterling integrity are reaping a just reward in the increasing amount and importance of their business transactions. They have always secured and retained the good will and esteem of their customers. Between this firm and the public press of the United States generally there exists a mutual feeling of interest and confidence. It is said with truth that not a single publisher ever twice presented to this house a bill due for advertising. Many publishers of this State have informed us that Messrs. Coe, Wetherill & Co. have sent them more business this year than all their other advertising agents.

Publishers in all the States find it for their interest to appoint Messrs. C. W. & Co., their agents, because by so doing the amount of their advertising business is greatly increased and facilitated, and they run no risk; for instead of dealing with firms with whose standing they are unacquainted, they deal with a single house, for whose honor and responsibility, not only ourselves, but almost the entire newspaper press of the country are vouchers.

Disorderly Conduct.

The majority of the coopers of Allegheny it seems have been on a strike for some time past demanding an increase of wages. Of course those who are out have a jealousy and hatred to those who still work at the old prices, and endeavor to annoy and embarrass them as much as possible Yesterday afternoon two of the strikers named Martin Rice and Christopher Singenfield entered the shop of Mr. James Hemphill, near the Union Skating Park, Allegheny, and endeavored to raise a row by challenging the men who were at work to fight. They were very much intoxicated at the time and did all they could to cause an encounter, but were unsuccessful, and were finally ejected by the proprietor, who came along just about the time they were making the most noise After putting them from about the premises Mr. Hemphill went to the Mayor's office and made the information against them as stated. Warrants were issued.

Allegheny Mayor's Office.

The following statement exhibits the business of the Allegheny Mayor's Office for the month of August, 1868:

Drunkenness, 93 males and 2 females; disorderly conduct, 52 males and 1 female; Vagrancy, 8 males and 9 females; larceny, 5 males and 1 female; surety of the peace, 4 males; assault and battery, 6 males; felonious assault, 1 male; interference with officers, 2 males; incorrigibility, 1 male and 1 female; violations of city ordinances, 5 males; riot, 1 male; burglary, 1 male; entering dwelling with felonious intent, 1 male; false pretense, 1 male; fornication and bastardy, 1 male. Totals, 182 males and 14 females. Of these cases there were: paid fines, 109; sent to jail, 48; sent to House of Refuge, 2; discharged, 37. Total, 196. In addition to these there were fifty informations made for various misdemeanors, all of which were settled, either by withdrawal, compromise or the non-arrest of the parties engaged in the offence.

Served Him Right.

Daniel R. Shut made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary C. Stephenson, with assault and battery. It appears that the prosecutor some time since married a daughter of the defendant and a few months since his wife died, leaving two small children who were taken by their grandmother. Shut it seems went to Sewickley, where Mrs. S. resides, a few days days since, accompanied by an officer, and demanded the children, whereupon Mrs. S. ordered him out of the house. He refused to go out, and finally the lady threw a stool at him. The case was heard by Alderman Owston, who dismissed it at the cost of the prosecutor. Shut said he would not pay the costs, but changed his mind when the Alderman informed him that he would lock him up until they were paid, and "shelled out" the "stamps."

Alleged Assault by an Officer.

Yesterday morning a farmer residing in Lower St. Clair township, named John Thompson, made information before Alderman McMasters against officer John Little for assault and battery. Thompson alleges that while he was in a store on Webster street, disposing of some produce, Little came in and demanded to know if he had a license for peddling, and on being answered in the negative he demanded the amount of the fine in such case, which he said was five dollars. Thompson says he refused to pay the money, when he was seized by Little and dragged to Alderman Johns' office. The Alderman happened to be out at the time, and before he returned the farmer escaped and proceeded to Alderman McMasters' office, where he made the information as stated. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.
